MONTH THE ASSHOLE

As chairman for the National Endowment for the Arts. John E. Frohnmayer has mishandled the threat of federal censorship of arts grants with one mealymouthed compromise after another. For mixing politics with art, diluting the creative vitality of both, John E. Frohnmayer is a paint-by-numbers Asshole of the Month for January 1991.

Rump gas is stanky stuff, no matter how it seeps into the windstream. The blatantly explosive fart is offensive and inexcusable in closed quarters, but at least announces evil influences on the way.

More insidious is the sneakypoot poop-flue, a sort of stealth bomber of stink who whisperlaunches his slay-load of rectal napalm off both cheeks, tainting all sides and wholly fumigating any middle territory. John E. Frohnmayer is just such a furtive, doubleoutlet vent.

Blowing tangential butt-bubbles with a glibness matched only by the ease with which he talks from either side of his mouth, Frohnmayer squarely refuses to face the crisis that stares him head-on as point man for the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA).

When nominated for the $82,500a-year NEA helm in September 1990, former Presbyterian choirboy Frohnmayer trilled: "I believe there ought to be artistic freedom and tolerance."

In a country that has sent over

John E. Frohnmayer

100,000 men to ostensibly defend freedom and tolerance on the other side of the globe, Frohnmayer's sentiment would seem to be selfevident. Such is not the case.

At the time of John E.'s consideration for the top-dog job, the NEA was under attack from all-American avatollah Senator Jesse Helms (R-North Carolina). Helms had sleazed an amendment onto the Congressional agenda that would bar NEA funding of what he deemed "indecent materials."

At his confirmation hearing for the NEA chairmanship, Frohnmayer hit a sour note in his response to the Helms dictate. Rather than denounce the proscriptive legislation as a trumped-up blast worthy of Adolf Hitler, Frohnmayer pussyfarted around the issue, declaring that the Helms criteria would be "extremely difficult to administer."

Not in Stalinist Russia it wouldn't.

"I do not believe in funding obscene art," further warbled Frohnmayer to complete his medley of mixed messages. Is the man an extension of the imperialist censors? Or is he a champion of, as he so succinctly put it, "unfettered artistic judgments"?

By the time Frohnmayer took office in November of 1990, his tune had slipped totally out of key, losing its harmonious melodies of "artistic freedom and tolerance" and "unfettered artistic judgments."

Frohnmayer's first official action of any note was to revoke a grant to a nonprofit, New York gallery exhibition scheduled to examine the impact of AIDS on the artistic community. Frohnmayer found the show "political rather than artistic in nature," a political opinion in itself.

The subsequent outcry from prominent persons in the arts nationwide prompted Frohnmayer to actually take a look at the art that, sight unseen, he had defunded. After an initial viewing, he opted to restore NEA monies. Was the Arts chairman on the side of the arts after all?

Not fucking likely.

"I do hope," warned Senator Helms, "that Mr. Frohnmayer is not retreating from his voluntary commitment to me."

Jesse's boy John was quick to reverse the outbreak of "unfettered artistic judgment." In a throwback to the Commie-paranoia loyalty oaths of the McCarthy era, Frohnmayer enacted a new NEA policy requiring grant recipients to sign an anti-obscenity certification, pledging that the funds will not be used to produce any indecent materials.

Having eased Helms's concern over sexual expression, Frohnmayer addressed unsettling political themes by rejecting artists who were liable to fuel Congressional controversy.

We may not know art, but we know Asshole.

Daryl F. Gates - The LAPD Chief told the U.S. Senate that casual drug users should "be taken out and shot." He later stood by his statement. saying, "Yeah, I mean it." In 1985, when Gates's son was arrested for drugstore robbery in order to support a drug habit, Gates defended the lad as being simply a "casual user." It would be severe to take Gates out and shoot him, but we can call him a casual-user Asshole.

Winnie Mandela - Husband Nelson's mission of peace and equality within South Africa is belied by wife Winnie's gangster ways. The conviction of her bodyguard for murdering a 14-year-old, and Winnie's subsequent criminal charges in connection with instigating the boy's death, point the finger to a stinky Asshole.

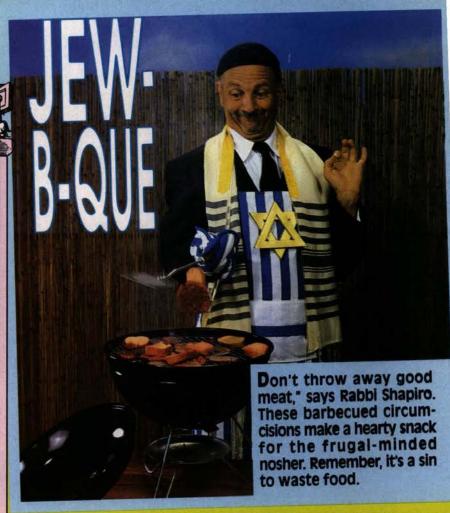

Kitty Dukakis - She drank nail polish. She tore open an aerosol can and drank hairspray. She drank after-shave and rubbing alcohol. Christ, why stop there? Why not suck down the urine tests for every convicted drunken driver in the state of Massachusetts? And what was the cause of Kitty's intemperate intake? Because, as Kitty claims, her mother was an adopted child? Or, as we surmise, Kitty is an Asshole.

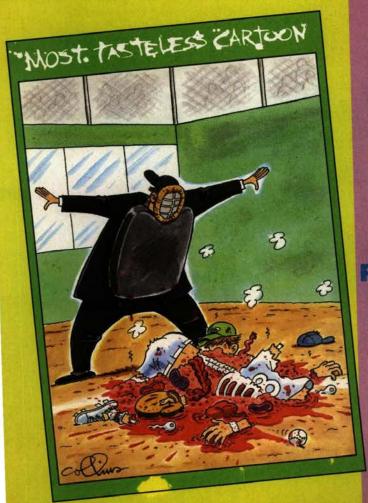

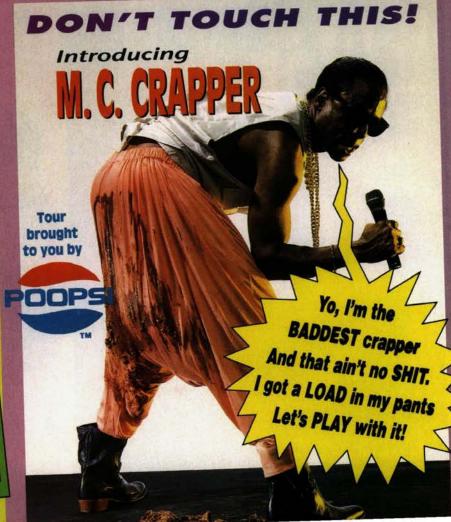

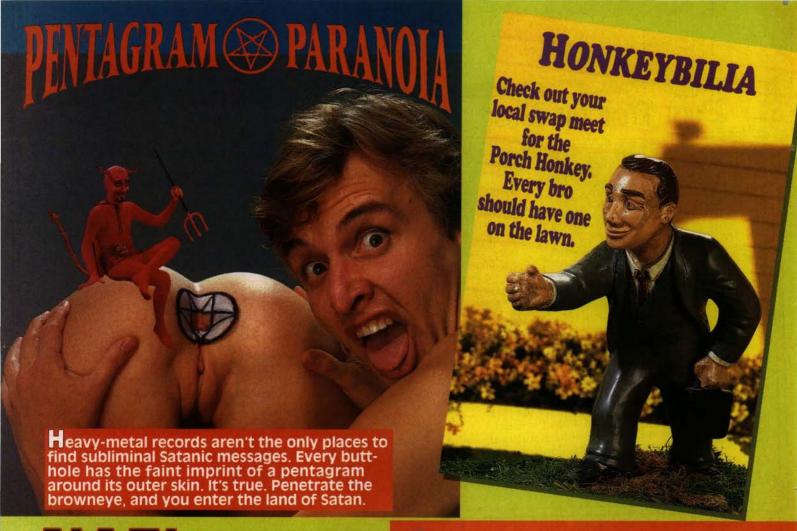

Pump that oil, girls. Here's a sight the troops in Saudi Arabia aren't likely to see. Get a rise out of us, and we'll pay $150 for any photo we use. Mail your scathing smut to "Porn from the Past," HUSTLER Magazine, 9171 Wilshire Boulevard, Suite 300, Beverly Hills, CA 90210. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope if you want to have your material returned. This month $150 goes to John Jenkins (for some old porn photos).

I'm writing regarding the article in the April '90 HUSTLER, Perverts Unanimous: Weird Sex Cults, by Adam Parfrey. The part that got my attention was about Necrophiliacs Anonymous. It mentioned the infamous Karen Greenlee, who worked in the funeral business many years back and enjoyed herself with many dead young men.

I have an interest in dead young women—but not like Karen Greenlee was interested in dead men! No! No! I just want to locate some videos that show young women's bodies being prepared for burial. Also videos that show these bodies being dissected by a coroner in search of cause of death.

I wrote to Karen Greenlee, but I never heard back. No luck at all. Do you have any idea who I might contact for this material? Oh! When I said "dead young women," I didn't mean your average old corpses. No! No! Gentlemen, I want to see some white, female bodies that, when they were alive, were attractive, pretty and had well-endowed figures. Of course, the age of the corpse could vary, depending on the development of the figure. I could go young or old.

As I said, I'm just interested in viewing the embalmer prepare the body for burial. I've seen the Hollywood version. Now I want to see the real thing.

Attention, World of HUSTLER Readers: We have reached the limit of our ability to stomach sick letters. No more fetus cravers, necrophiliacs or homicidal bigots need respond. (Toe sucking's still okay - but hold the cheese.)

HEY, UGLY!

I applaud your bold format and your fresh innovation. I love America, but I also love out these things, our creative impulses are severely hampered. If you want to classify my political beliefs, you can't! What I believe comes from my mind and heart. I support abortion, legalization of all drugs, the death penalty and NAMBLA [North American Man/Boy Love Association]. I wrote this letter mainly to commend you for your excellent pictorial of dead and mutilated bodies. Why? Am I a sicko? No. Listen to me. Visuals are louder than words. When people see these types of pictures, I hope they blow chunks! I hope these pictures help people see what kind of psychos live in this world! By the same token, I hope they see that the only just retribution for serial killers is capital punishment.

To change the subject a bit, let me talk about ugly people. Not everyone is as handsome as Richard Gere or Patrick Swayze. It is sad for me, because I am ugly. But I sincerely want to help other ugly men and women. We must come to grips with our problems. United, we are strong! We can overcome! We can conquer! This is why I'm strongly interested in forming a club entitled (tentatively) Ugly People Against Discrimination (UPAD). We ugly people shouldn't have to be lonely because of our physical features. Instead, let us become a powerful force! Join me, ugly brothers and sisters, in making this dream a reality. (If I get enough responses, I'll put together a newsletter and mail it out to the members.) — R. M. Long Beach, California

While it's mildly entertaining to wonder which is sicker, pederasty or corpsefucking, this kind of dreck makes us want to skip the letters section entirely and move on to the pink!

HARD THROB

Where in the world did Brett, in your Serpent Kiss layout with Barbara Dare in October '90, come from? He's the most gorgeous creature I have laid my eyes on since I met my husband. I fell instantly in lust with his heavenly bod! And that long, cascading blond hair! Wouldn't I love to feel that hair tickling my thighs!

DICKS, PLEASE

This is a rebuttal to "Homo Patrol" (Feedback, October '90), the guy that freaked at all the cocks in HUSTLER. This person must be strictly into watching dykes beat off. He'll probably marry a lesbian! As for me, I truly enjoy watching guy-girl interaction. I'd like to see your male models' tongues diving deep into the pink. It would also be a turn-on to see a spread of a pair of girls with three guys.

Send that complainer a copy of Playgirl. If the bountiful pink in HUSTLER ain't doing the job, he must be looking for another kind of relief.

—M. S.

Coeur D'Alene, Idaho

I've been enjoying HUSTLER Magazine for several years. I enjoy every single part. In the October '90 Feedback, L. A. complained that there are just as many cocks as cunts in HUSTLER ("Homo Patrol," Feedback, October '90). Maybe L. A. doesn't know of the vast number of ladies who enjoy seeing cocks in HUSTLER. I personally know that the hot shots of cocks and cunts in HUSTLER Magazine have led to quite a few weekends of mate-swapping.

The photo-layouts in October '90 are the greatest. Porcelana (Porcelana: Built to Last) has the nicest cunt and ass that I have ever seen. All the ladies in Beaver Hunt were terrific. HUSTLER is truly a great magazine and very entertaining. Don't change a thing!

—O. T.

Mooresville, Missouri

You are always showing women eating each other! Why do you not show any men going down on each other? I've been buying HUSTLER Magazine for over five years and have never seen two guys as close as that.

Do you have something against gay men? I would like to see some white and black men getting it on. Gay is gay, women or men.

—R. B.

Clinton, Tennessee

Whatever we've got against gay men, it isn't nine inches of purple, throbbing love meat!

This is for L. A. in Merrimack, Massachusetts, who asked if you had faggot staff members because you have so many cocks in HUSTLER ("Homo Patrol," Feedback, October '90). I'm a 23-yearold woman who really enjoys reading HUSTLER with my boyfriend. It makes for an extremely interesting evening when we can both get into it. Granted, it's a men's magazine, but it's pretty tough to find stiff cocks and sexy stories in that women's magazine that we all know and love. My boyfriend and I think you're doing a fine job, and we thank you. And, guys, doesn't it make things a little easier knowing that if your wife finds your HUSTLER lying around the house, she just might enjoy herself instead of getting really angry and throwing it away? -P. R.

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

I am writing to ask you to show more men in your photo-layouts. My boyfriend and I buy HUSTLER Magazine every month. There's plenty of pussy, but this gal would like to see more dick! I'm sure your female readers agree. So tell your homophobic readers to fuck off and give us ladies a break!

—A. D. Miami, Florida

We want to make the ladies happy, but we don't want to piss off our homophobic readers! What's the solution? Maybe it's time to cash in on the chicks-with-dicks trend. One good-looking model could make everybody happy!

WONDERFUL ATTACHMENT

Your pictorial on Porcelana (Porcelana: Built to Last, October '90) was incredible. I loved her long, beautiful legs that were wonderfully attached to her super-pink cunt and ass. Her face is beautiful. Everything about her is perfect, except I personally wish her tits were fuller to support her large, enticing nipples. HUSTLER rules!

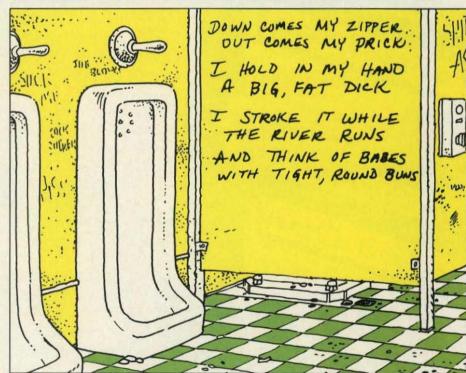

—R. S. V.

Silver Spring, Maryland

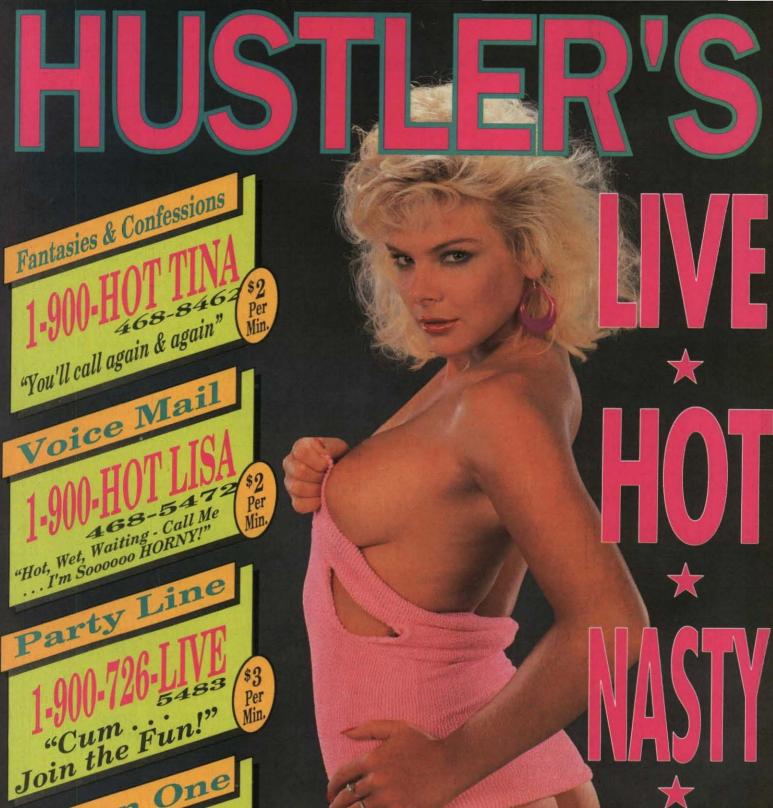

Hmm. Porcelana with a dick ... nah.

CHICK OR CHICKEN THE TWISTS AND TURNS

OF STATUTORY RAPE

very summer since high school, Brian P., 21, worked at his brother-in-law's video arcade in a little college town, dispensing change and making sure things didn't get out of hand. Every night the place was jammed with university students as well as the mainstay of arcade parlors, younger kids who were 13 to 15 years old. The hours were long, and the pay wasn't great, but the fringe benefits were amazing. Brian wouldn't have traded jobs for the world.

Every weekend the arcade was packed with pretty girls watching the boys play the slots. Good-looking girls, dressed sexily in miniskirts or cutoffs, bored and itching to show off. Many of them flirted with Brian, followed him around, even reached to touch his cock through his jeans as he circulated through the crowd. Sometimes he met a girl or two after work for beers and a blowjob. A couple of times he snuck an especially ripelooking babe into the Employees Only restroom in the arcade and balled her there.

One night, after blissfully banging a red-lipped, buxom young vamp in the john, Brian was met at the door by the local sheriff, called to the scene by who knows which jealous young Mario Brothers aficionado. Brian's embarrassment turned to anger as he was publicly arrested, then to panic when he was told the charge-"unlawful sexual intercourse," more commonly known as statutory rape.

Every state in the union has a law that says people under a certain age cannot legally have intercourse or engage in other types of intimate sexual relations. It's called statutory rape because it's a law that has been created by a legislative decision, or statute. It assumes that someone who is underage cannot make an intelligent decision about sex. The age specified in these laws-whatever it is-is known as the age of consent.

Sex with someone younger than a state's age of consent is illegal under any circumstances. Usually, the law applies to an older man with a younger woman. It's a crime if he's her teenage boyfriend just as it is if he's her middle-aged sugar daddy. It doesn't matter if he thought she was older or if she seduced him; in the eyes of the law, the sexually mature young seductress offering herself to a guy is not old enough, or experienced enough, to realize how stimulating her attitude can be to the unsuspecting male.

Most people do not consider it outlandish that a 16-year-old girl sees a 21-year-old guy or that the two of them sleep together. Lawmakers have included "sliding scales" of age differences that determine the severity of the punishment for the crime, depending on the ages of the people involved. The age of consent usually ranges from 13 to 17, with the harshest punishments being meted out when there's a difference of four or more years of age. In Ohio, for example, a 14-year-old and a 17-year-old would probably have no problems. But after the older one turns 18, creating a four-year spread, he can be thrown in the slammer for ten years. The penalties disappear again when the younger one turns 15. making only a three-year difference.

The sliding scale wasn't always included in the statutory-rape laws. Up until about a decade ago, most states had a single age of consent. That age was usually set between 16 and 19, depending on the state. Interestingly, the earlier laws applied only to men. The reason that men and not women were charged with statutory rape under the old laws can be found in the history of rape legislation. The original Babylonian statutes, 4,000 years ago, treated women as property, bought and sold for marriage. Rape was "property crime" that stole the girl's chastity and undermined her worth on the marriage market. Her father lost money when she lost her virginity, because an impure bride was unfit for marriage. Death was the only punishment. No matter how old the female happened to be, the man died for his crime.

A woman who had intercourse with a boy could not be convicted of a crime under the old laws. In one New Mexico case several years ago, a 23year-old housewife balled a 15-year-old kid. The woman was charged with statutory rape, but the state court threw out the charge. Said the New Mexico court: "Intercourse with a young boy is nothing more than sex education [that is] essential and necessary in his growth toward maturity and subsequent domestic family life."

Many states have now passed "gender neutral" laws. These statutes ignore the sex of the victim and the "actor" (actor is the legal term used to denote the person charged with the crime) in determining the punishment. This means both men and women can be charged with what's called unlawful sexual intercourse or criminal sexual conduct.

In 1275 A.D., King Edward I of England made it a crime to ravish any maiden under 12 years old, even when she consented. This was the first true statutory-rape law. Three hundred years later, Queen Elizabeth I lowered the age to ten. Since many of the laws in the United States are based on old English law, which is known as "common law," the age of consent was set at ten years in most American states until early in this century. That's when many states slowly began raising the age to reflect changing social and sexual values.

For many years, death or life imprisonment were common penalties under the statutory-rape laws (although it's impossible to know how many people actually received such tough sentences for the crime). The only real escape from these punishments was often written into the laws themselves: The man had to marry the girl.

High-profile statutory rape scenarios abound in the annals of real-life Hollywood. Silent-film star Charlie Chaplin met little Lita McMurray when she was seven years old. When she was 16, he made her a star and secretly began sleeping with her. She became pregnant a year later and threatened to have him charged with statutory rape unless he married her. The two rushed to Mexico for the ceremony, followed by scandal-seeking reporters.

With marriage out of the question, movie director Roman Polanski left the country. In 1977, Polanski, who had been married to actress Sharon Tate when she was murdered by Manson family members, was charged with unlawful sexual intercourse (statutory rape), sodomy, sex perversion, lewd and lascivious acts, and rape by the use of drugs. The charges were for reportedly seducing a 13-year-old girl who was posing for photos Polanski was shooting for a French fashion magazine. Just before the trial, Polanski told the judge he had to take care of some business in France. He hasn't returned since.

As was the case with Polanski, most people accused of the crime face additional charges of molestation, contributing to a child's sexual delinquency, and lewd and lascivious conduct. These are all laws designed to protect children from perverts. Most statutory-rape charges these days are, in fact, filed against the demented individuals who attack children. Statutory rape is the charge leveled for the crime because it's easier to convict the molesters on that count than on most others. All that needs to be shown is that the victim was under the age of consent and that the offender used her in some sexually gratifying manner. Intercourse isn't even a requisite for a conviction, and the penalties are stiff. In most states, it's a threat of a hefty fine and/or imprisonment. In Alabama, if a 25-year-old man enjoys the gifts of a 14-year-old girl, he's guilty of second-degree rape and can be put away for up to ten years.

While the punishment for statutory rape is harsh—nine states still prescribe life imprisonment—most unlawful sexual intercourse between willing partners is not prosecuted these days. Even if one of the lovers is vengeful and tells the police—or if parents or an ex-lover cause trouble—charges probably would not be brought.

"Police officers and the courts are overburdened with real crime; so cases with consenting partners usually never reach the courts," says a criminal attorney in New York City. "Vice cops are too busy trying to track down habitual sex offenders to worry about a couple of kids who got caught with their pants down.

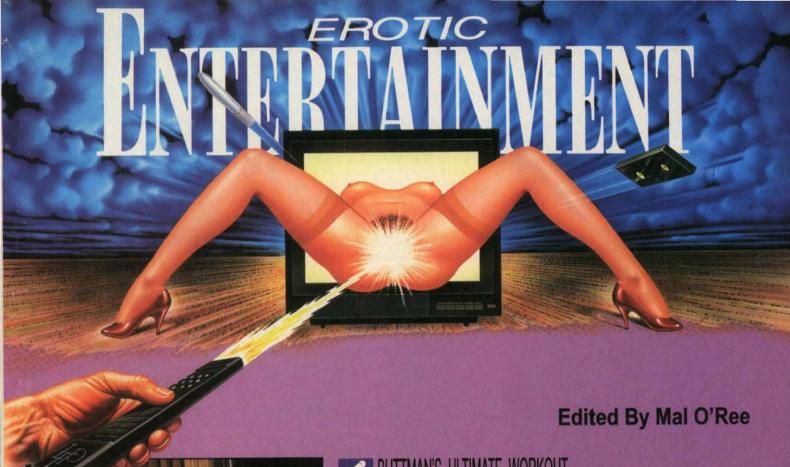

"If, however, such a case did go to trial, the law in New York would not be as vindictive upon the guy if he's 18 and the girl is 15 as it would if the guy was 22 and the girl 13. The age difference is the critical factor that defines what is and what is not sexual perversion."

As the New York law reflects, it's important to bear in mind that there are a lot of underage girls out there who look and act much older than they really are. But no matter how sexually mature they appear, touching them is considered statutory rape.

The office of a local district attorney or judge can provide information about the law in your state. Needless to say, it's better to spend ten minutes having the law explained than to spend ten years behind bars for breaking it. Ignorance of the law is never a defense. And in the case of statutory rape, ignorance could land you in jail.

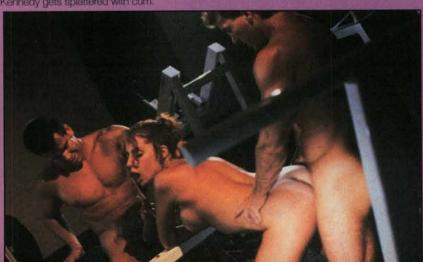

BUTTMAN'S ULTIMATE WORKOUT

Three-Quarters Erect. Directed by John Stagliano; starring Darla Derriere, Madison, Patricia Kennedy, Randy Spears, T. T. Boyd, Alexandria Quinn, Talia James, Kim McKay, Zara Whites, Tom Byron, Bubba Brando, Rocco Siffredi and John Stagliano. Videocassette: Evil Angel.

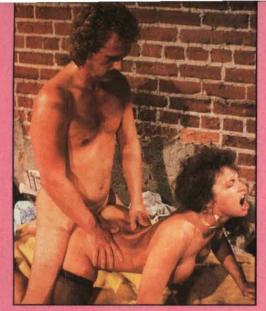

The Buttman finally does more than just look and lick. In his other adventures, our heinie hero was content with a little butthole sucking, maybe a bit of finger probing, and a lot of no-touching worship of his favorite body part. All of that is part of the Workout, but it's the three butt-bangings that make it the ultimate in sexual exercise. Alexandria Quinn, pretty in a slutty Barbra Streisand kind of way, takes Rocco Siffredi's Italian timber up her ass and loves every foreign, swollen inch of it. Darla Derriere, who inspires hard-ons by simply standing up, slowly slides her backside down the upright shaft of Bubba Brando, smiling with glee as he pounds up into her. If Zara Whites doesn't have the best ass in porn, she at least bends over and spreads for a ferocious butt-fucking finale with Siffredi that ends with her on her knees taking a faceful of cum. In between these cheek probes, we're treated to an up-close inspection of Kim McKay's sweetmeat, girls licking boy butts, Talia James's big, round pooper stuffed with dildos, and Patricia Kennedy's sweaty, $20-whore body splattered with cum. You can't get this - Mal O'Ree kind of Workout at Holiday Spa.

BLACK STOCKINGS

Three-Quarters Erect. Directed by F. J. Lincoln; starring Ashlyn Gere, Joey Silvera, Bridgette Monroe, Tom Byron, Madison, Marc Wallice, Talia James and James Lewis, Videocassette: Vidco.

Even the best of fucks are only so much haphazard thrashing without a good man behind the camera. One of the secrets of Black Stockings' potent erectile quotient is the employment by director F. J. Lincoln of lens whiz Jane Waters. Waters's raunch resumé includes schtup-shooting stints with John Stagliano and Gregory Dark, both of whom are known and revered for the high degree of healthy, full-view perversity intrinsic to their superior-grade smut. The trademark salient close-ups and aggressive zooms to the pertinent action bring visual delight after stunning eyeful throughout the pistoning and licking of Black Stockings. The girls aren't really all that much better-looking than standard porn sperm-bait, but seen from glistening, eyelolling, torso-heaving, hip-wrenching, lip- and tongue-splashing angles in a bright, depraved light, the Black Stockings babes are something to pull on again and again. -Christian Shapiro

BUSH LEAGUE

Half Erect. Directed by Michael Carpenter; starring Champagne, Mia Powers, Sabrina, Amber Savage, Rick Daniels, Jeff Golden and Randy West. Videocassette: Coast to Coast.

Director Michael Carpenter has a renowned past among the universe of wad-sodden Kleenex as a man whose fuck-loops ran circles around jerk-ofthe-mill pud-pull product. Carpenter took a little vacation from the trash treadmill, but he's back in squack, and Bush League is probably as indicative as anything else of what to expect from him. Packaged as a feature, the nonsex niceties never transcend the crudities of crank-'em-out cum flicks. with performers forgetting their dumbo dialogue and looking bored beyond stupidity by their tediously lame character setups. Indeed, production levels never exceed those of a typical Ron Jeremy shoot, until the flesh talent strip to skin and stick it in. Golden-globed Champagne and her husband, Rick Daniels, are the pivotal Bush performers, with a prick-stiffening assist from slithering, slinky, cinnamon-skinned sex monkey Mia Powers. The cast is filled out with Randy West and a few female beasts. The boning ranges from a Powers/Champagne/Daniels dalliance to a dude jerking himself off. Carpenter, we watch smut to be a dude jerking off, not to see a dude jerking off. — C. S.

SUPERSTAR MASTURBATION

One-Quarter Erect. Compilation. Starring Bonnie, Michelle Gabriel, Rene Fox, Bionca, Suzy Nero, Britt Morgan, Bunny Bleu and Toy. Videocassette: Bean Blossom.

When one thinks of superstar in relation to the blue screen, none of the names in this cast spring to mind. This is just the first problem. Solos onscreen have to sizzle, or they fizzle fast. The clips here, many of them old, or with unattractive performers, or both, suffer from lack of climax, or are overlong, or are victims of erratic editing. Not one clip puts together the combination of 1) An attractive actress; 2) A well-paced, convincing, passionate wank-off; or 3) Editing and camerawork that doesn't look like the crew had a few too many. Some scenes are arousing to a point, having two of the ingredients, but in this case two out of three ain't super.

DIARIES OF FIRE AND ICE 2

Half Erect. Directed by Henri Pachard; starring Sharon Kane, Dominique St. Clair, Rick Savage, Keisha, Bionca, Randy Spears, Jamie Gillis, Caroline Laurie and Vanessa. Videocassette: VCA.

Anybody can keep a diary, except Raven Touchstone. The wordy smut scriptress refuses to keep anything to herself, sharing with us, the paying porn public, every mundane situation, hackneyed complication and farfetched resolution her little mind can jot down, regardless of the fact that we just want to be erotically entertained. That out of the way, Raven's Diaries have a few interesting episodes in between all the writing. Jamie Gillis, with a head-covering hood of black leather, taunts a foxy Frenchie lady with a miniature baseball bat, then works his domineering charm on an obedient, eager-to-please Keisha, finishing off the tape by orchestrating a supposedly incestuous lesbo twat-smear between Keisha and Sharon Kane. Fleeting toe-sucking and a threeway boff buffet fill out the Fire and Ice pages. Just flip through to the good parts.

Anal: The doctor makes house calls.

Half Erect. Directed by Scotty Fox; starring Lynn LeMay, Jillian Amore, Randy Spears, Brittany, Tom Byron, Mike Horner and Raven Richards. Videocassette: Moonlight.

Anal Alley is supposed to be the sleazy side of town where the sex is cheap and the women cheaper. When you finally do see it, the fabled fuck lane is nothing more than two trailers sitting side by side. Excuse us if we yawn, which pretty much sums up the feeling for this ho-hum humpfest. Randy Spears plays a doctor who's constantly being tempted by his libidinous patients, but he remains loyal to wife Lynn LeMay. Not that he's missing a lot, as the boffing of Brittany by Tom Byron proves. Some serious tonsil-tooling of Jillian Amore by Mike Horner should pep up bored bone-bashers, but only LeMay registers any urge to purge peckers in her two scenes: a scintillating lezzie lunch with Raven Richards, featuring two battery-operated dildos crammed into each of LeMay's holes; and the closing corker where luscious Lynn deep-throats Spears, then takes his dick up her ass. Hot though those scenes are, most of Anal is banal. — Sam Lowry

AMBER LYNN: THE ULTIMATE EXPERIENCE

Half Erect. Directed by Buck Adams; starring Amber Lynn. Videocassette: V.I.P.

Amber Lynn possesses all the right equipment to deliver the ultimate sexual experience, but this ain't it. Ms. Lynn hasn't graced the blue screen in three years, and the rest has done her good. She looks great: tan, buff and glamorous. It's too bad one must wait so long for her to peel away her evening gown. It's too bad that her sensuous talk never gets to the point of raunch. It's too bad she doesn't fold back her flaps for a true peek at pink. It's too bad nothing penetrates that pristine pussy and ass, not even her own finger. This personalized masturbation vid doesn't even have a dildo. Buck Adams has done an adequate job of directing, and the camerawork and editing don't do Amber any harm, but either the ultra Amber is in the past, or she (and we) are yet to come.

THE GIRLS CLUB

Half Erect. Directed by Duck Dumont; starring Sharon Kane, Madison, Rene Fox, Mia Powers, Cameo, Champagne, Dizeree Roxx and Jette Montery. Videocassette: VCA.

The Girls Club is a loosely lipped, tightly assed organization of humans whose one common attribute seems to be lack of a penis. The purpose of the Club is for its members to sit around and diddle clits, suck snatch, ride face and finger holes. The nonpossession of organic flesh wands doesn't get in the way of this ginch group's enjoyment of phallic penetration. Their dues and fees have gone to buy a large sack of tricks—dildos, vibrators, double dongs—and their natural proclivities take the bonding bimbos well beyond the realm of bumping titties and brushing lips in dry kisses. The girls are deeply into one another, and their Club is worth attending, at least for one or two meetings.—C. S.

KING TUNG: BUSTIN' THE ROYAL HEINIES

One-Quarter Erect. Directed by Bobby Hollander; starring King Tung, Aja, Renee Morgan, Suzie Bartlett and Johnny Hooker. Videocassette: L.A. Video.

Every sex video has to have some kind of gimmick; here, it's a black would-be rapper, King Tung, with a supposed 12-inch tongue. King's mouth lizard is long and flexible—with some proper exercises he may soon be able to lick his eyebrows just like he licks Aja's asshole—and he does have a big cock, but despite the hype his sexual talents are a washout. Renee Morgan, however, is a slutty, filthy turn-on. She slobbers a juicy pair of cocksucking lips all over King's mighty scepter, spit-shining his knob and then stuffing herself with it. Suzie Bartlett, after doing a snatch-on-snatch act with Aja, takes on a tiny, white dick—the only other pussy probe in the show—for one of the year's lamest fucks. With nothing to back up the gimmick, there's hardly anything left to recommend.

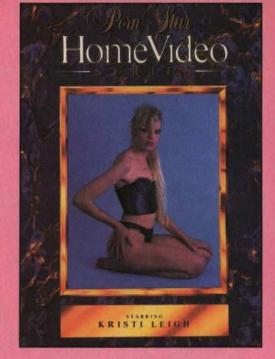

Aja, and an interplanetary intrusion on Stella Starr's begging box. Writer/director Ron Jeremy has wisely chosen to portray the alien visitor in the form of hulking hunk DiLorenzo, rather than himself, which most aliens probably really look like. Unfortunately, Missy won't send many into onanistic orbit, although Starr does display a lot of bone-building potential. Ultimately, slack sexing makes Missy Impossible a tape that will self-destruct after a few solo strokes. — S. L.

Half Erect. Directed by Ron Jeremy; starring Aja, Stella Starr, Busty Belle, Tiger Lillie, Rocky DiLorenzo, David Morris and Rick Savage. Videocassette: Arrow.

According to Missy, if extraterrestrials do land on Earth, they'll have great taste in women, and they'll know what to do with them. Witness spaceman Rocky DiLorenzo's teste-tickling ravishment of the wanton

AT HOME WITH KRISTI LEIGH

Half Erect. Directed by Jerry Reed; starring Kristi Leigh and Thomas Long. Videocassette: Home Grown Video.

Kristi Leigh, a blond cutie with a couple of tattoos and school-girl titties, did some hard-core videos a few years ago, then dropped out of sight. The good news is that she's returned to Smutville. The bad news is that she brought her boyfriend, Tom, along. Fortunately, she also packed her hairy cunt. This hot, little fuck has blond hair all around her pink hole and up the crack of her tight butt cheeks, where the fine down swirls in the middle, offering a fringed target for Tom's wang. After a round of sweaty sex, with Kristi sucking Tom's dick after it's been in her snatch and taking a cum-shot in her face, Tom catches his breath and goes for her ass. There are plenty of nice, close shots of her perky sphincters getting pumped, her pink pussy lips flowering like works of art as he stuffs her butt. This one-scene fuck show is actually worth the money. -Lenny Wilde

PARTY DOLL

Three-Quarters Erect. Directed by Alex deRenzy; starring Kelly Royce, Brad Phillips, Tom Byron, Rappolo, T. T. Boyd, Rebecca Steele, Mick Reynolds, Don Fernando, Victoria Paris, Marc Wallice and Joey Silvera. Videocassette: VCA.

Kelly Royce has a tight, pretty pussy, a womanly work of art framed by flawless thighs. DeRenzy features that art in shot after sizzling shot of solo diddling that's more arousing than any orgy. Royce Hoovers harpoons, gobbles goo, then fucks and sucks her wanton way through several spunk-spewing studs and the tan, stacked and lovely Victoria Paris, who rides and writhes like a hula dancer on Dexedrine. Royce is the Party Doll, but Rebecca Steele nearly swipes the show, stirring up the soiree with a tricky, three-dick trick that puts Royce's quadruple finale to shame. Let's party!

— W. H.

A tricky, three-dick trick saves the Party.

Almost X in Vegas

In what many called an unfortunate sign of the times, a direct result of mounting social and political pressure against porn, the adult industry kept a low profile at the Video Software Dealers Association convention in Las Vegas last August. Less than 20% of Porn Valley set up shop in a remote corner of the show, filling just 16 booths, the lowest turnout of smut in nine years. Even so, and as usual, the flesh peddlers were the most popular attraction, with hundreds of people lining up to meet their favorite nasty spreads.

Lois Ayres and Patricia Kennedy turn their other cheeks at Britt Morgan's surprise birthday party. Entertainment Editor Mal O'Ree sucks up to Lynn LeMay at Cinderella's annual Tropicana bash.

Obsession: Mother blows best.

AN INNOCENT OBSESSION

Half Erect. Directed by Loretta Sterling; starring Lynn LeMay, Jeff Golden, Kassi Nova, Peter North, Jessica Bogart, Kim Alexis, Blake Palmer, Brockton O'Tool, Cassandra, and Scott Irish. Videocassette: Filmco.

Porn's treatment of incest has always been a sympathetic one. After all, what guy could resist sampling the family flesh when his mother is gash goddess Lynn LeMay and his sister is Kim Alexis? That's the problem facing Jeff Golden, after he's been institutionalized for having dipped his wick into both. The way LeMay has her mouth and muff stuffed by Peter North and Golden in a torrid threeway proves the old adage that mother blows best. The scene is capped off when both bucks jettison their jizz across her bountiful boobs. Sister Kim is slammed by Blake Palmer, along with her doting brother, in the film's other sperm-spilling highlight, which includes her squeezing her milky titties out on Palmer's dick. North's cunt-creasing of a screaming Jessica Bogart is also solid dick-draining material, but the balance of the video is filled with lackluster lusting. With a keen eye and a steady fast-forward finger, An Innocent Obsession can be a corrupting experience.

WHERE THE BOYS AREN'T

Totally Limp. Directed by Judy Blue; starring Barbara Dare, Deidre Holland, Jamie Summers, Cheri Taylor and Kelly Royce. Videocassette: Vivid Video.

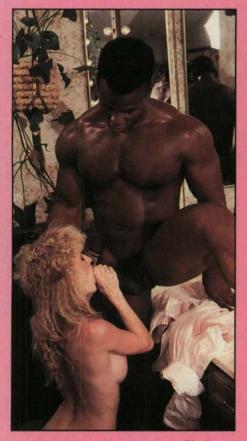

Although Where the Boys Aren't collects five of the hottest asses currently cracking on the blue-screen circuit, tearning them with ten of the most nubile boobies and five snug and trim, photogenic sets of cunt lips, not a single hard-on is to be seen during the entire proceedings, not even at home, where stiffness is the whole point of viewing. Boys also has charming sets, focused photography and a friendly ambience. The women are all tight-caliber, top-of-the-slime career girls—not a bad camera angle among them. Everything looks good on the surface. Unfortunately, erotic passion and the on-tape expression of it are not surface phenomena. The girls don't even touch one another until the tape is almost half unwound, contenting themselves with a simultaneous self-service slot-stroking, after which they all turn over and go to sleep—alone. The would-be wanker spectator faces the same fate, but without any prior release of self-satisfaction.

— C. S.

Not a single hard-on for the Boys.

Woods likes getting splattered by Black cock.

Half Erect. Directed by Roy Karch; starring Carol Cummings, Debi Diamond, Ray Victory, Kimberly Kane, Blake Palmer, Sean Michaels, Holli Woods and Jack Baker. Videocassette: Western Visuals.

Spinning off its infamous interracial loop series, Western Visuals jumps the format up to a full-length feature of relentless black-on-white fucking. A nearly all-black band (Debi Diamond is the singer) runs out of gas out in the middle of the boondocks. The only house they find just happens to be packed with incredibly horny blond chicks splashing around in a hot tub with nothing better to do than shove rubber dicks up their twats. The surprise is Holli Woods, a sleek cocksucker with a great ass and a pair of meaty cunt lips. She really likes getting splattered in the face with ball juice. The nonstop fucking is all crosscut in one gigantic smorgasbord of hard-core. While it's not mildly creative, so much screwing is bound to have a few heated moments to jerk off to.

The Mistress presents one adulterous assignation after another

THE SCARLET MISTRESS

Half Erect. Directed by Judy Blue; starring Tori Welles, Nikki Charm, Sabrina, Randy West, Rebecca Steele and Cal Jammer. Videocassette: Vivid Video.

The best part of breaking up any romantic or connubial relationship is fucking all that strange pussy on the side. The Scarlet Mistress presents one adulterous assignation after another, with the prime adulteress being pleasingly packed sex cat Tori Welles. Despite boobs that are an engineering feat comparable to the World Trade Center, an ass to eat off of, and snappy, elastic, beckoning pussy lips, Welles's strongest sexual characteristic remains her face. When she's sucking cock, her gleaming gonad-eyes glare out from around the glistening, fleshy gear shift, and her wanton, carnal kitten tongue curls around the pulsing stem. Her head tosses in erotic abandon as straining penis or tongue plumbs her vaginal depths, the surges of ecstasy lighting up her transported mug like some sort of inner erotic ray shining out to illuminate the glowing prick bulbs of stroking home handymen. Unfortunately, Welles's jolting sensuality is not conducted to the other corespondents of Mistress, a story of infidelity that ultimately lacks fuck fidelity. — C. S.

FEAST OR FAMINE

I can't find one goddamn guy in my town to agree with me, but I'm willing to bet that more HUSTLER readers than I can count will find my newfound sexual appetite appealing. Hold onto your hats and listen up: I like to fuck and eat women when they're on their periods!

I was a senior in high school when I discovered the joys of a woman's monthly blessing. Claire was a football cheerleader. She was the hottest girl on campus and an easy lay, a senior sex bomb whose appetite for cock matched her bra size. She had guys booked for weeks ahead on her calendar. It wasn't until two weeks before our graduation that she finally consented to go out with me. I got the feeling that she scheduled me for an unbooked weekend, though why she had an open night, I didn't know.

We took a drive into the country and parked along an abandoned road. Claire had no qualms about me taking off her dress and bra and burying my face in her mammoth hooters. She had no problem pulling my trembling pud out of my pants and licking its stiff length, getting the jizz to boil inside. But when I tried to pull down her panties to finally get at her fragrant snatch, she slammed her legs shut.

"I'm on my period," she confessed, a little shamefacedly, laying a restraining hand on my hungry cock. Suddenly I realized why she'd called in a second-string player tonight.

My whole life came tumbling down around my ears. "You mean we can't fuck?" It was an urgent howl of rage. I was so horny that my balls felt like they were in a vise.

"I don't mind if we fuck," Claire said calmly, wiping a strand of long, blond hair out of her eyes. "But do you mind?"

Obviously, she expected me to shut up and settle for a mouth job, but I was so hungry for sex, I would have fucked her dirty asshole if I had to. My fingers grazed her furry mound and lightly touched her hot, pink clit, but when I tried to insert a finger into her cunt hole, I found something blocking it.

"You'll have to take out my tampon if you want to get in there," she smiled, again expecting me to throw in the towel.

My groping fingers found the string to the tampon, and I gave it a tug. It surprised me how tightly her cunt held on to it. Instead of sliding out, like I expected, it held fast for a few seconds, then flew out with a pop.

A musky, briny odor hit my nostrils. Never in my wildest dreams would I have thought that a woman's period would get me so turned-on. My throbbing cock muscle threatened to break through its tingling skin.

"Throw that thing out the window and eat me out," commanded Claire, taunting me to make a fool out of myself. Man, if that's what made a fool, I was the village idiot!

The pussy odor was ten times stronger with my face pressed to her soft, clean muff, and a million times stronger than any normal pussy odor I'd ever encountered. I dove in, tongue first. I tasted normal pussy flavors—the flesh, the musk, the sweat. But when I poked my tongue into her hole, it was salty and sweet and slightly metallic tasting.

The taste and smell connected in my brain like a blast of cocaine. I lifted my face out of her cunt, propped her legs up onto my shoulders and jammed my joystick into the bloody gash. The sensation was unbelievable, slicker and hotter than any hole I'd ever fucked. I wanted to stay inside her forever, but Claire was writhing in orgasmic passion, moaning and playing with the hard nipple knobs on her jiggling tits, and I wanted to take her to the limit, as she had taken me.

I pulled my raging cock from her dripping hole. She moaned and tried to stick it back inside.

"Suck me," I ordered. "Taste for yourself." She frowned and rolled her eyes. but when it became quite clear that I wasn't going to fuck her any further without some fellatio, she tentatively wrapped her lips around the fat, red head. Soon, those same shy lips were tickling my balls. "Mmm," she moaned like a kid in a good-soup commercial, evidently enjoying the taste of her menses as much as I had. She sucked my rod until I was ready to spew my cum in her mouth, then she lay back along the seat. I returned my rock-steady fuck tool to the warmest, slickest pussy welcome in the brief but substantial history of my personal fuckdom. By my third or fourth stroke, I was spraying Claire's molten insides with a massive amount of cum, erupting like a geyser with love lava from the deepest regions of my shaking balls.

Unfortunately, the load I sent into her made her pussy way too slippery to stay inside; so I pulled my still-stiff prod out, all bloody and dripping with jizz. Claire was beside herself in a cumcrazed frenzy. Her lips reached for my glistening pole like a racehorse to a water trough. As she licked and cleaned my meat, I used her long, blond hair to soak up the excess, then kissed her, smearing crimson juice across her face.

The next three weeks, she wouldn't talk to me. Wouldn't even look at me. Then she called, sounding hungry, pleading like a little girl. Only said four words: "It's that time again." I don't think I'm ever going to be able to get that smell out of -Ned A. my car!

Louisville, Kentucky

tional legs before wasting his wad.

I owe it all to a man I work with at my accounting firm. The first time Dave asked me for a date, I figured it was some kind of a cruel joke. He was the stud of the office. Since I was 45 pounds overweight, with no self-esteem and no social life, I thought the other men in the office had put him up to it on a dare.

I put on a low-cut dress that amply displayed my fat-pillow tits, but wasn't too surprised when he showed up at my door that Friday night and told me we weren't going out after all. What did surprise me is that he marched me over to the mirror in the bathroom and said, "Look at yourself! You're fat! You're out of control!'

If he hadn't been the sexiest man I'd ever seen, I would have kicked him out on his ass for insulting me like that. Outrage kept me from admitting that his domineering tone of voice had me wanting to fuck the rude-boy stuffing out of him.

He squeezed my arm. "I honestly think that what you need to get off your selfpitying ass is a good, hard spanking."

I blushed and whispered,

BEVERLY'S HILLS DIET

Any man that met me a couple of years ago probably mumbled something about "what a shame-pretty face" and wandered off in search of someone who wasn't such a dumpy, overweight couch potato. I was pretty, all right. Pretty fat!

The men I meet lately ogle my hourglass figure and try to hide their stiff pricks. There's no need for any sympathetic enthusiasm about my pretty face. Every good-looking guy who used to hold contempt for my fat frame now spends his time trying to mentally calculate just how long a guy could stay between my sensawouldn't dare."

He smiled at the challenge in my voice. He was very much in shape, and I was very much out of it. I'd hardly gone two steps before he grabbed me by my long, black hair and jerked me toward the toilet seat. Five seconds later, I was bent over his lap, my sexy dress tangled around my waist. my jumbo panties around my ankles.

Raising his hand, he gave me a hard smack across the widest part of my abundant ass cheeks. Yards of loose flesh jiggled like gelatin. Ouch! I was surprised at how much it stung! I was bound and determined not to make a sound, not to give him the satisfaction, but a helpless whimper broke from my lips. Despite the humiliation, I was giddy with erotic longing. This was the most attention any man had paid me in years. His hand rose and fell again and again. Each time, he aimed at a slightly different spot. He was blistering my entire butt! I squirmed, finally begging him to stop.

"No way," he said firmly. "The only way you're going to get some exercise is if I make it too painful for you to sit on your flabby ass for a long while."

I became suddenly aware of the way each spank pressed my clitoris against a lump in his jeans. He had a hard-on! The spanking now seemed deliciously sensual. My squirms changed direction. Instead of trying to escape the blows, I busily rubbed my pussy against his crotch.

By the time he finished blistering my butt, I was so horny that I couldn't do anything but lie down naked on the floor and grind my tingling flesh into the carpet. Kicking my legs wide apart, I grabbed my own snatch and forcefully began to fingerfuck myself while begging him to screw me. He watched for a long time, enjoying the show. It was more than three hours after we'd started when I finally felt the sweet slam of his cock thrusting into my wet cunt.

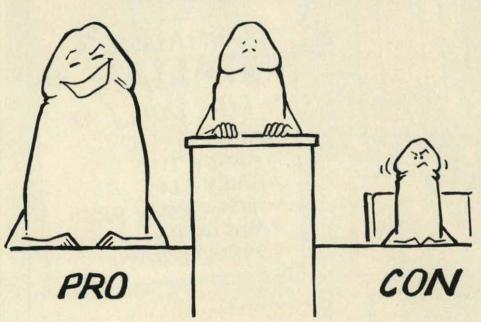

"I really get off on taking charge of a woman's life," he panted into my burning ear. "If you let me, I could really turn your life around."

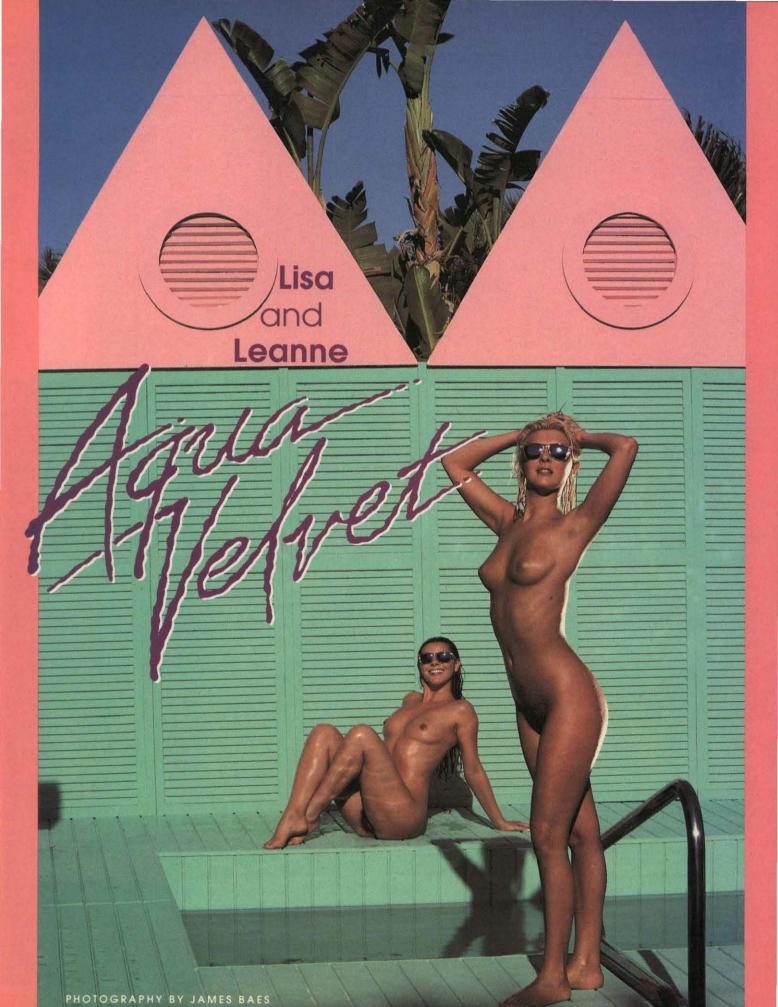

The man didn't lie. He did turn my life around. Instead of devouring quarts of ice cream in front of the TV tube like I used to, I now spend my weekends getting bared, blistered and boffed. Hell, some days Dave won't allow me to eat anything but his fresh jism, which he claims is the perfect low-calorie, high-protein food. And several months after getting down to my ideal weight, I still enjoy every fucking minute of it. Beverly R.

PORN-BUSTERS

On December 12, 1989, five officers from the Yukon, Oklahoma, Police Department marched into Oleo's Homestyle Video Store.

When members of the Trinity Baptist Church in Yukon, Oklahoma, discovered copies of the controversial film The Last Temptation of Christ in a local video store, they tried in vain to force shop owner Joy Oleo to remove the tapes from her shelves. They signed petitions, mounted boycotts and set up pickets. When that failed, they had the shopkeeper busted for obscenity.

On December 12, 1989, five officers from the Yukon Police Department marched into Oleo's Homestyle Video Store and confiscated $12,000 worth of X-rated tapes.

Felony obscenity charges submitted to the district attorney's office at the time carry a potential sentence of ten years in prison and a $10,000 fine. Oleo's lawyer believes it will be a year before the matter is resolved. Meanwhile, Homestyle Video has lost tens of thousands of dollars in sales, and Joy Oleo has lived through a nightmare.

Oklahoma is not an isolated case. For the past five years, the adult industry nationwide has been under attack by local, right-wing vigilante groups who want to dictate what their communities can watch, read and hear.

Encouraged by the Meese Commission Report on Pornography, which suggests that "private action may be more appropriate than governmental action," watchdog groups have sprung up all over the country, intimidating shop owners, organizing boycotts and manipulating politicians.

Many of these groups reportedly receive support from national organizations such as the American Family Association (AFA) and Citizens For Decency Through Law (CFD), whose operations are shadowy at best. "The methods of fund-raising used by the CFD have always been suspect," claims Denver attorney Arthur Schwartz, a First Amendment lawyer of 38 years.

It's not surprising. Citizens For Decency was founded by Lincoln Savings & Loan owner Charles Keating, suspected of perpetrating a $1-billion S&L fraud on the American public. Keating is also alleged to have given $1.4 million in campaign contributions to five influential U.S. senators in an effort to stall a federal investigation into his questionable banking practices.

We may never know how much, if any, of the $1 billion lost by Lincoln Savings ended up in the coffers of the CFD. "All of Keating's activities are highly suspect," Arthur Schwartz notes. "Meanwhile, you have him marching up and down the United States trying to set a standard of morality!"

Schwartz has seen local chapters of these organizations influence juries by packing the courtroom with local ministers and their own narrow-minded supporters. "These groups attract the fringe element—people who, due to an overzealousness in religious or political beliefs, seek to impose their will upon the majority," the attorney maintains. "These people are not a majority of anything. They're a fringe minority."

In many communities, this fringe minority has proven extremely effective in dictating local morality. In Heber Springs, Arkansas, in order to appease the local chapter of the CFD, police busted a convenience store that sold men's magazines.

During a five-year reign of terror that saw ten area shop owners threatened with everything from boycotts to arrests, the Citizens For Decency in Cleburne County, led by Reverend David Miller, had all but swept Heber Springs clean of publications and videotapes they alone deemed obscene. Only the Moonlight Market hadn't knuckled under.

Throughout 1989, Miller's group picketed the market, hoping to persuade manager Bob McGough to remove adult magazines from store shelves. Miller ran newspaper ads carrying headlines like "Pornography Targets Children!" and "Pornography! Child Abuse! Moonlight Market!"

County prosecutors were reluctant to move against McGough. They feared that any case against Moonlight would fail to hold up in court. But Miller pressed the issue. Finally, authorities confiscated 279 adult magazines from the store and charged McGough with promotion of obscenity—a Class D felony carrying a penalty of six years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

"I never felt like we were contributing to sex crimes or anything," explains Moonlight cashier Brenda Bishop, who notes that before the inflammatory newspaper ads appeared, "people didn't even know we carried the magazines."

According to Bishop, adult publications were never openly displayed in the store. Customers had to ask for them by title. Often, sales clerks would wait until children, or adults who might have found the material offensive, had left the store before ringing up a purchase.

"The sale of these magazines represented less than 1% of my business," McGough recalls. "But you have to keep your sense of humor. It's ludicrous, but it's serious. If they can get people to seize magazines from a store, next they'll be going to the public library. They don't know when to quit!"

PORN-BUSTERS

Police in Denton, Texas, raided two local markets, confiscating men's magazines and threatening employees with obscenity arrests.

In Texas, sales clerks are prosecuted each time police bust a store. The charge is promotion of obscenity, a misdemeanor punishable by a year in county jail and a $2,000 fine.

In April 1990, police in Denton, Texas, a community 60 miles north of Dallas, raided two local markets, confiscating men's magazines and threatening employees with obscenity arrests. The next day, magazines containing anything resembling sexual content were pulled from store shelves countywide.

Police said they had warned store managers months earlier to remove any obscene materials from their stands, an act Dallas attorney Malcolm Dade, a defender of First Amendment rights, sees as blatant censorship, "It was threatening to the non-English speaking owners of these small stores," he explains. "The police would pick up a copy of Club and say, 'No can sell!'"

The DA went after the distributor's truck driver. "They actually filed felony charges for the wholesale distribution of obscene materials against a route man!" Dade says. "A going-to-the-penitentiary charge: ten years and a $10,000 fine."

Adult businesses are under siege all across Texas. Communities such as Denton are enacting antiporn edicts modeled after a Dallas ordinance that was recently struck down by the U.S. Supreme Court.

Dallas tried to eliminate the sale of sexual materials by licensing outlets and setting up absurd restrictions. The law stated that nobody with a history of criminal conduct could work for an adult business, which meant any employee they prosecuted was out of a job. It also called for the revocation of a store's license after the second bust.

"It was a scorched-earth policy," says attorney Arthur Schwartz, who handled the appeal. "The Court struck down the law because it left licensing to the whim of the licensing authority—in this case the chief of police—without providing safeguards like prompt appellate review."

In Texas, porn is a highly political issue. "The state's attorney is running totally on his success in shutting down adult businesses," Schwartz notes. "Meanwhile, Dallas has one of the highest murder rates in the country."

Marauding vigilantes pose a threat to us all. In February 1990, Alabama's Montgomery County District Attorney Jimmy Evans imposed his community's obscenity standards on an entire nation by forcing three national TV channels off the air. And he did so without even going to trial.

Home Dish Satellite Network (HDSN), a New York-based firm, offered three coded, satellite-delivered program services: StarDust Theatre, standard theatrical movies; Tuxxedo Network, soft-core sex; and American Exxxtasy, X-rated movies like Furburgers and Ramb-Ohhh!

The Exxxtasy channel was the most popular. It accounted for over half of HDSN's $10-million business and boasted 30,000 subscribers. Unfortunately, 400 of them lived in Alabama.

Evans first took notice of American Exxxtasy in 1988, when a local junior-high-school student was caught distributing a hard-core video allegedly taped off the satellite channel. At the time, the DA was hunting for headlines as he geared up for a run at the office of state attorney general. An Exxxtasy bust would land him on the front page.

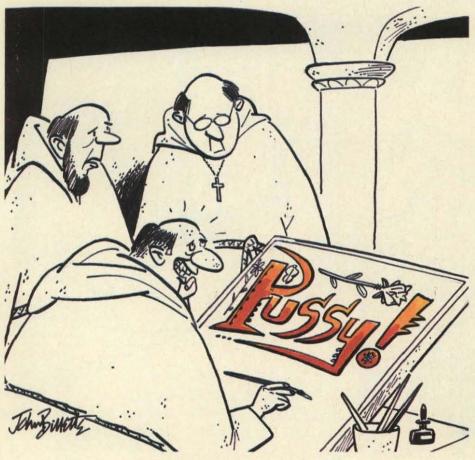

Evans brought 504 obscenity indictments against the companies responsible for putting Exxxtasy on the air: GTE, GTE-Spacenet, U.S. Satellite Inc. and HDSN. He called the corporations "the largest, most technically sophisticated hard-core pornography ring the world has ever seen."

HDSN's operation collapsed like a house of cards. Facing criminal charges punishable by 36 years in prison, a $540,000 fine and the confiscation of company assets, U.S. Satellite refused to provide a link-up for the Exxxtasy signal, and GTE denied access to its satellite. In return, charges against them were dropped. Without the income from Exxxtasy, HDSN was forced to shut down.

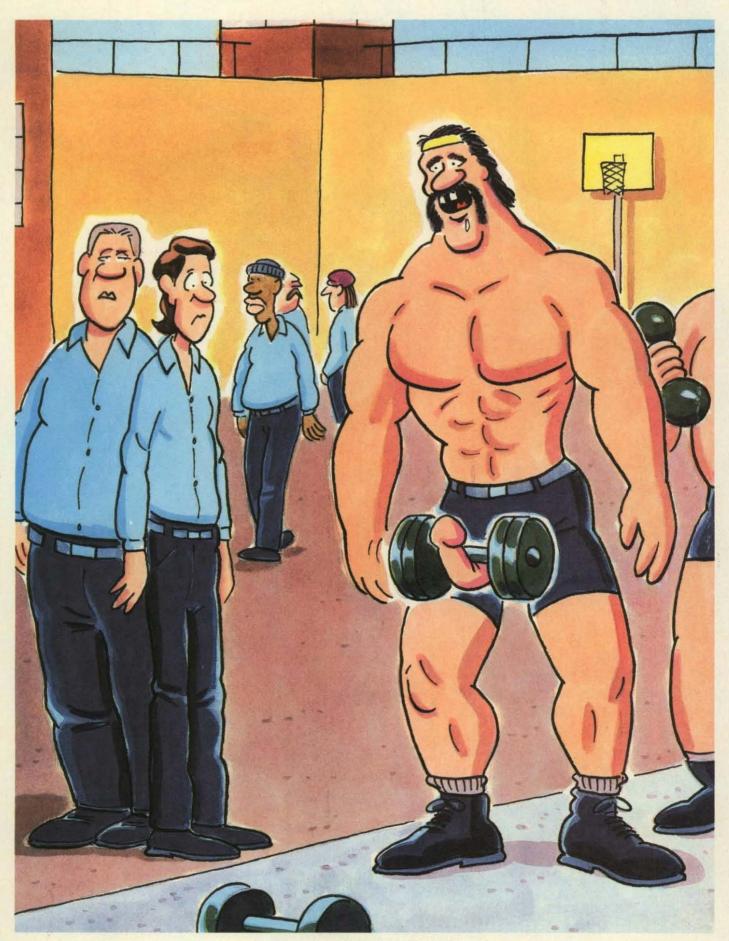

Martin McCaffery, a member of the Alabama Civil Liberties Union, has seen this happen time and again: "Jimmy Evans has developed the perfect technique for never having to go to court—he wins by intimidation!" McCaffery notes that by generating numerous indictments and spouting inflammatory remarks, Evans often gets defendants to back down without a fight.

American Home Satellite Association director Court Newton is particularly disturbed. "It is a major concern when a local prosecutor can shut down a national programming service without so much as a trial," he maintains.

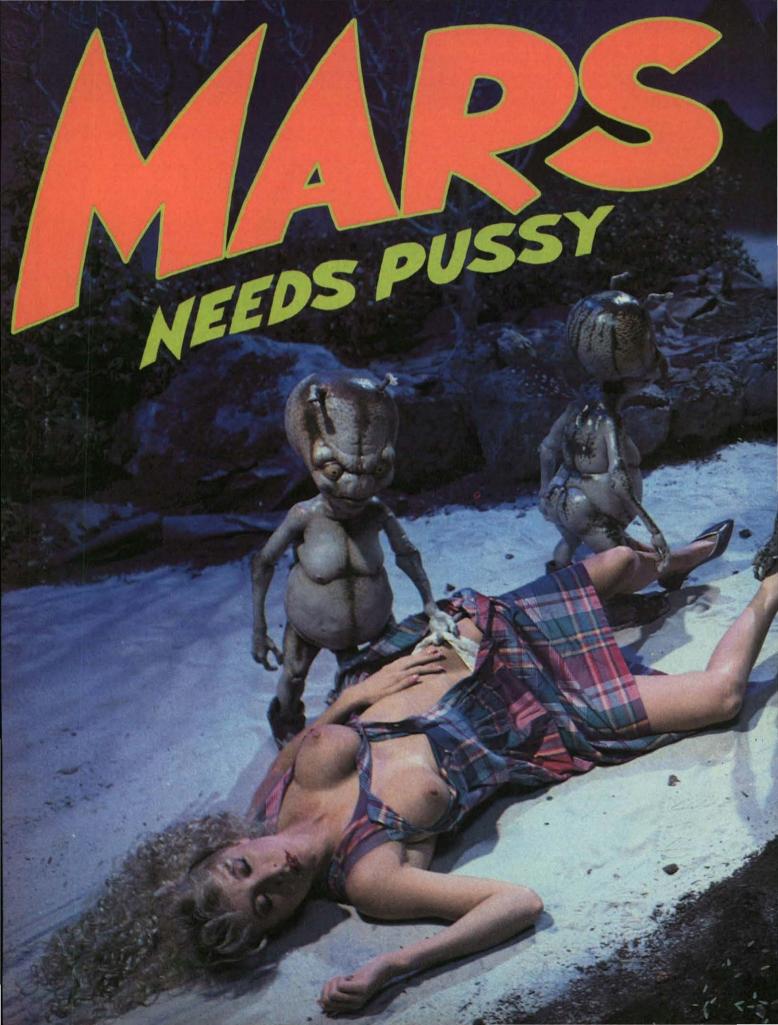

Although HDSN was all but out of business by late June, Evans was still calling (continued on page 59)

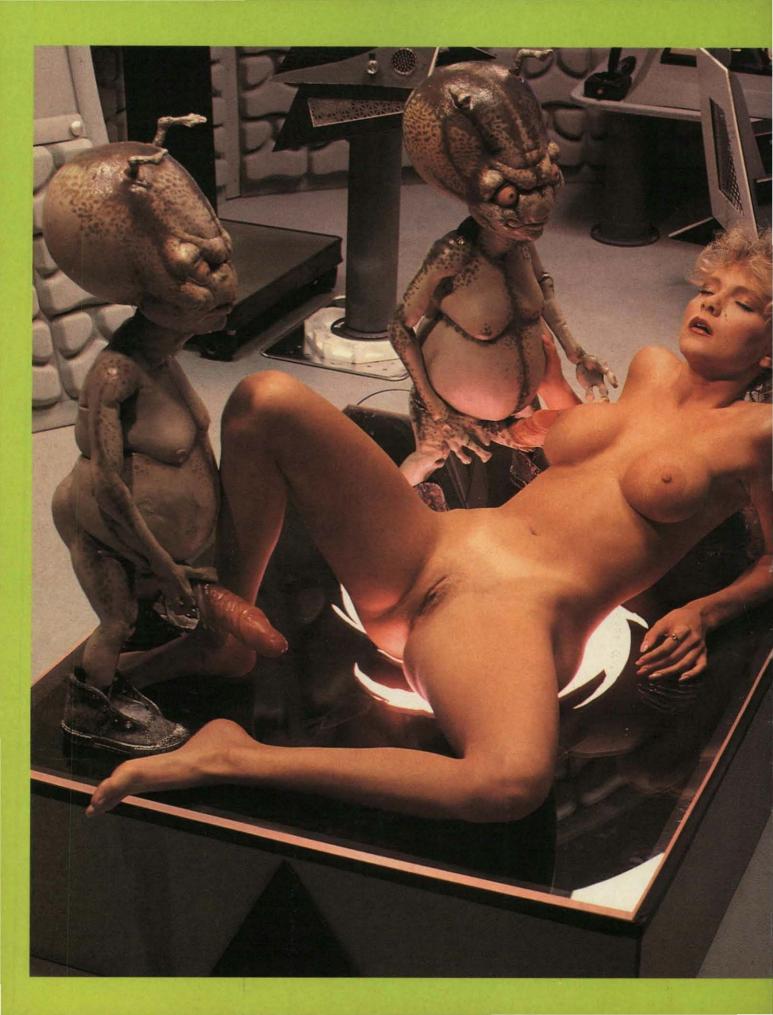

"I'm afraid Brother Timothy has lost it!"

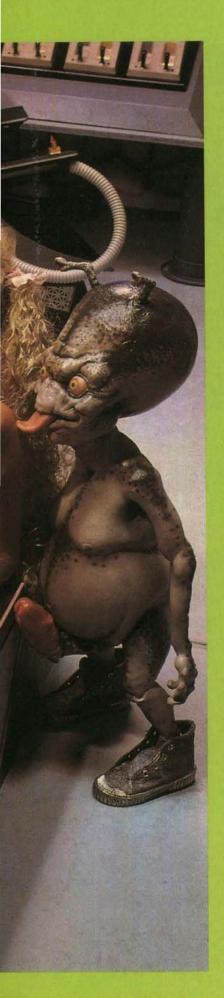

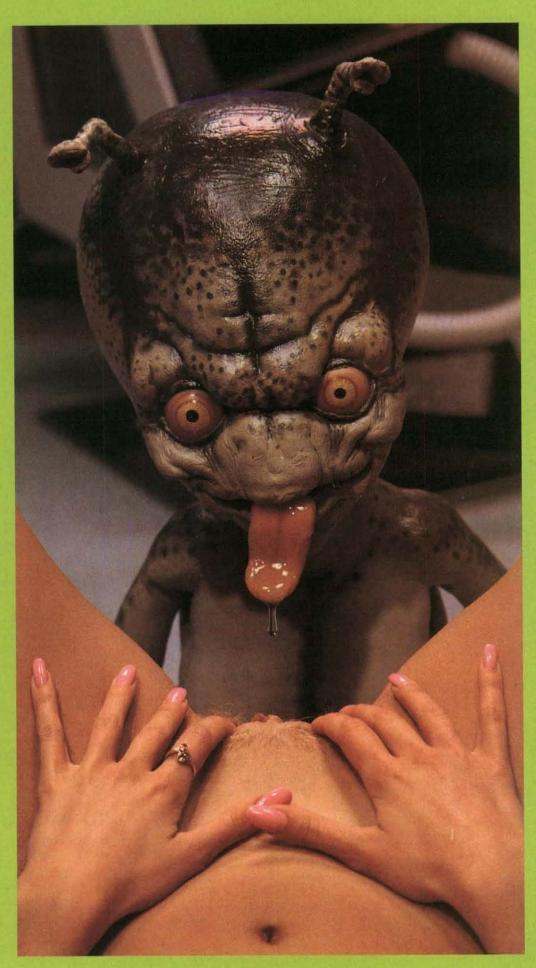

"Better move on, kid—I think he likes you."

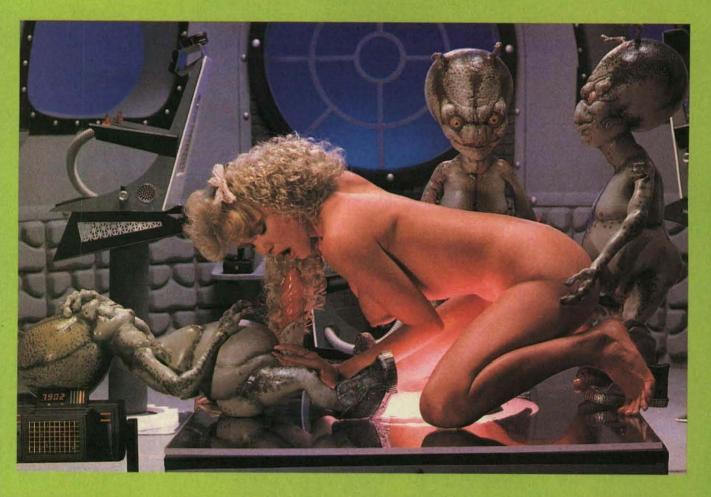

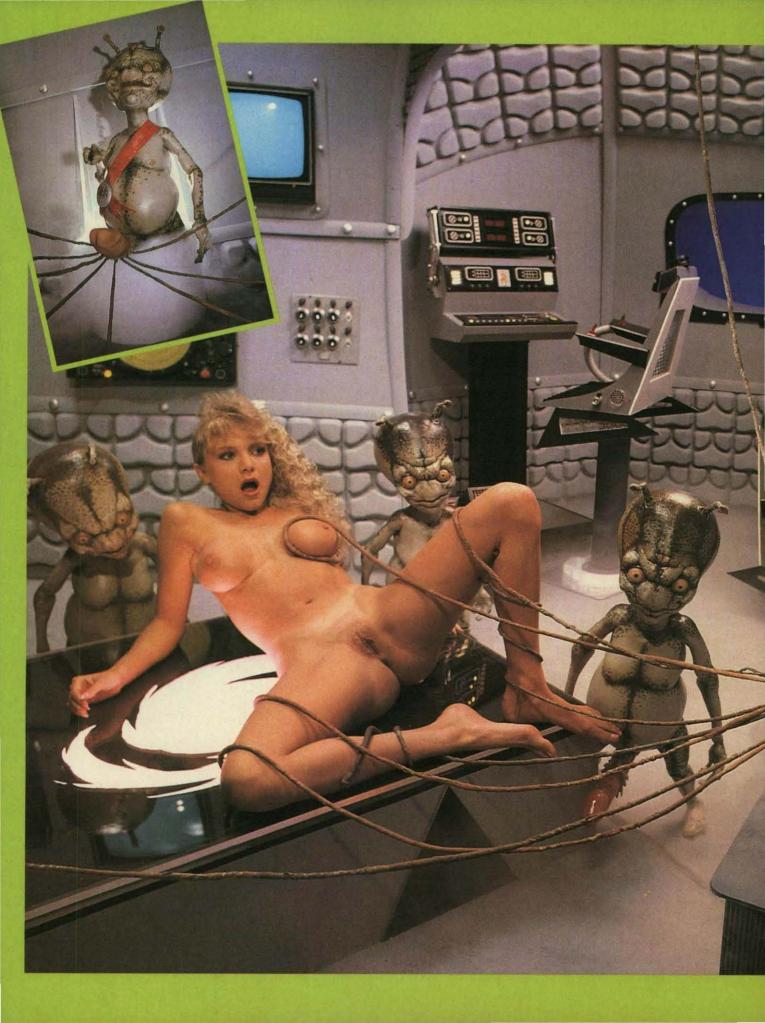

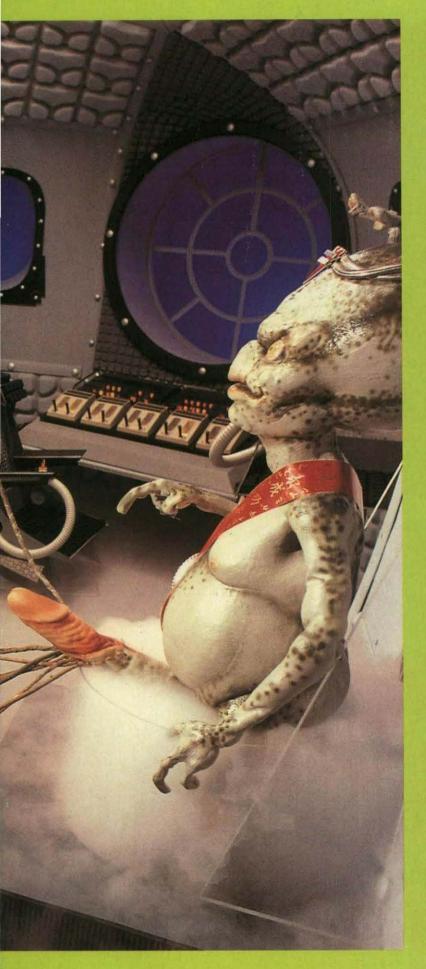

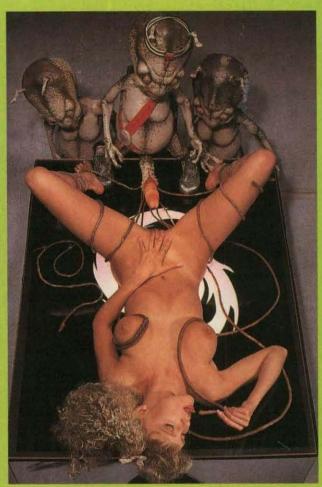

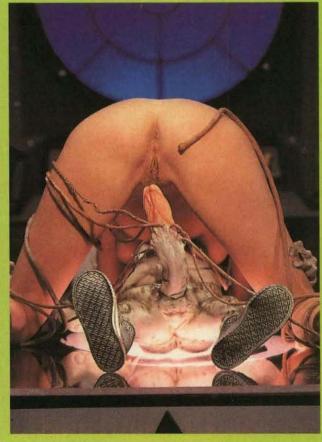

PORN-BUSTERS (continued from page 48)

In Michigan, legislation is being considered that would ultimately ban hard-core videos by classifying them a public nuisance.

for the extradition of four HDSN executives from New York.

According to Norman Siegel of the New York Civil Liberties Union, had the extradition request been authorized, "It would have effectively imposed Alabama's restrictive community obscenity standards on New York."

In Michigan, legislation is being considered that would ultimately ban hard-core videos by classifying them a public nuisance. In Cincinnati, law enforcement has clamped down so hard that people can't even rent X-rated movies.

About a third of the states have developed legislation modeled after the federal RICO (Racketeer-Influenced and Corrupt Organizations) Act. Using RICO, the government has the right to seize a defendant's assets, along with those of his company, before he even goes to trial.

According to Charles Ruttenberg, attorney for the Video Software Dealers Association, the potential of being prosecuted under RICO is enough to make a shop owner wary of X-rated tapes. "If you're a video dealer," he explains, "and someone says, 'If you don't take those off your shelves, we'll charge you with racketeering, confiscate your assets and treat you like a drug dealer," it has a chilling effect."

The federal government has been stepping up its attacks as well. In 1989, the Justice Department's National Obscenity Enforcement Unit, formed under Edwin Meese, filed 120 federal obscenity indictments—up from 37 in 1988.

Many of the additional indictments have come as a result of a Justice Department probe known as Operation PostPorn, which has literally busted several adult mail-order companies out of business.

The largest firm to fall last year was Pak Ventures Inc., a Connecticut-based distributor of X-rated videos. In March 1990, owner Karl Brussel pleaded guilty to using the mail to sell obscene materials in Virginia, and promised to plead guilty to similar charges in four other federal jurisdictions. He also agreed to turn over his inventory of adult videos and to never again operate a sexually oriented business. In return, he received a reduced prison term of one year.

Brussel was in no position to fight. The Justice Department held five indictments against his company and was threatening to prosecute in all five jurisdictions, a tactic that Martin Garbus, Brussel's attorney, terms censorship by intimidation.

The Justice Department got an obscenity conviction without having to prove that the materials in question were obscene. Garbus was confident that had he gone to trial in Virginia last March, none of the 50 videos listed in the indictment would have been deemed obscene by the jury.

"It was a mom-and-pop operation," Garbus contends. "Most of the 200 titles Pak handled were 15 or 20 years old. They're softer than what you would find at the local video store."

Meanwhile, the Justice Department was calling the case "a successful prosecution which has eliminated what is believed to have been the nation's largest mail-order distributor of obscene materials."

On September 25, 1989, David Canton, the Florida director of the AFA, sent a letter to Waldenbooks chairman Joseph Antoni, threatening legal action against the bookstore chain if it did not stop selling such "obscene and illegal" publications as HUSTLER, Club, Penthouse and Playboy.

Canton claimed that unless Waldenbooks removed the offending publications from their shelves, the AFA would hold a press conference and seek to have state and local law-enforcement agencies act on alleged obscenity violations.

On October 31, a coalition of Waldenbooks' three periodical trade associations filed suit in Miami District Court, charging the American Family Association of Florida with extortion and racketeering. The suit claimed that the AFA had violated the federal RICO Act by threatening to take action against Waldenbooks and others for selling magazines they found offensive.

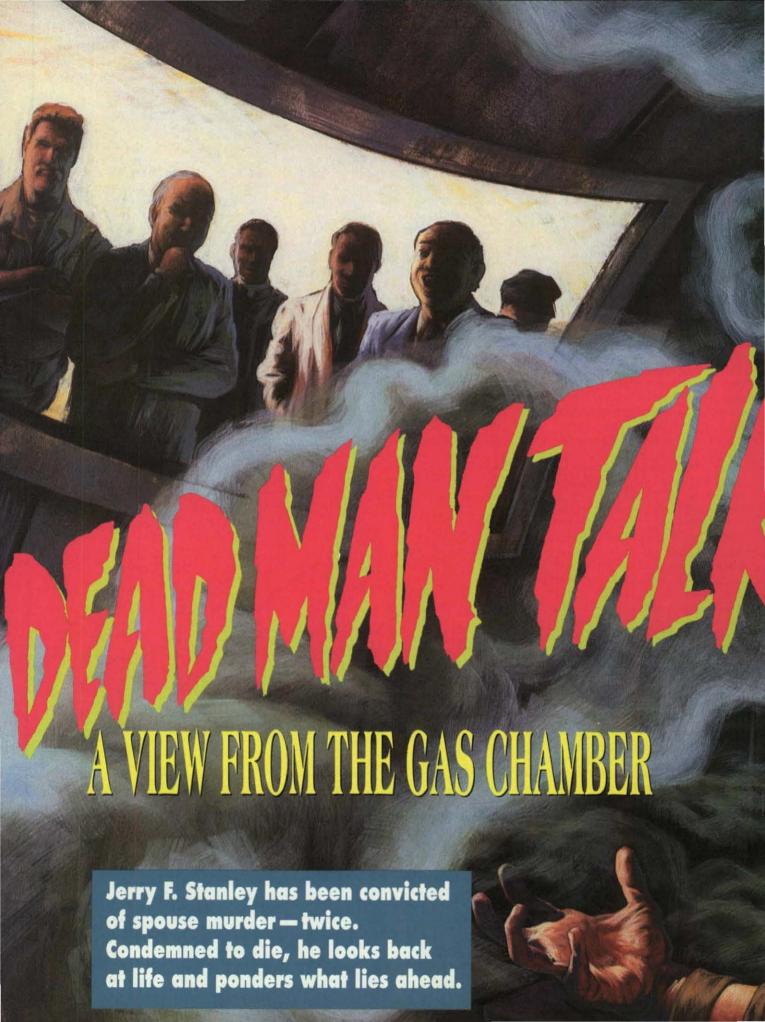

As a result, the AFA backed down without so much as a whimper. They canceled a November 1 press conference at which they had planned to kick off their antismut campaign.

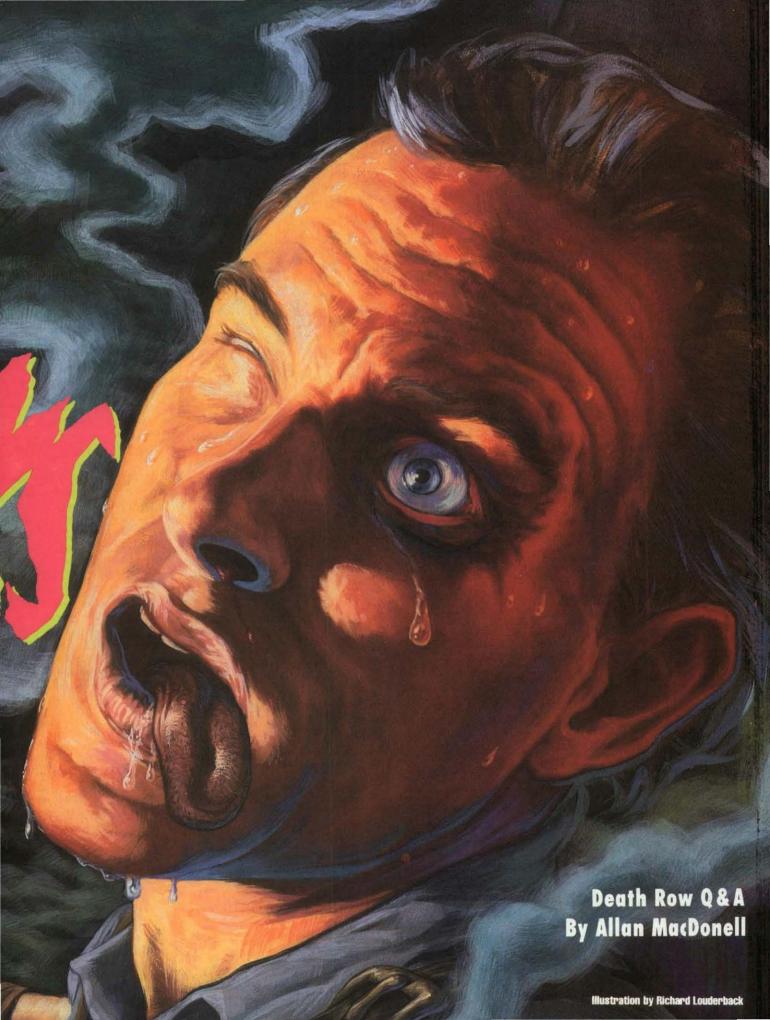

Unfortunately, the magazine industry as a whole has yet to join the battle. According to Donald Kummerfeld, president of the Magazine Publishers of America (MPA), many publishers who remain thus far unaffected by the censorship issue feel they have a competitive advantage over those whose magazines have been pulled off the shelves. "However," Kummerfeld admits, "the MPA is slowly recognizing that when one of our magazines is threatened, all are threatened."

And when some blue-nose vigilante threatens the personal freedoms of one American, he threatens the freedoms of all.

"You mustn't masturbate, my son. The Bible tells us it's a sin."

DEATH ROW

I'm in the AC, the adjustment center. I was placed there 22 months ago. I was told I'd be there for three months, and I'm still there.

The death penalty is a growth industry again in America. Nationwide, in gubernatorial campaigns and DA runoffs, candidates are either pointing at the number of rabid criminals fried during their incumbency or promising to gas a kennelful of mad dogs if elected.

HUSTLER doesn't pretend to have the answers to the logistical and moral dilemmas raised by the death penalty. Nor does HUSTLER wish to dictate its readers' opinions. We do, however, believe that only an informed public is capable of forming valid conclusions. Our responsibility is to supply essential facts necessary to forming those conclusions.

When San Quentin Death Row inmate Jerry F. Stanley extended an invitation to view his execution, we jumped at the opportunity. We intend to take our readers behind the scenes when Stanley takes his seat in Quentin's gas chamber. We intend to chronicle Stanley's last hours, and we will report with vivid and exact language the process of death by poisoning, but we leave it to our readers to decide if the punishment fits the crime.

Jerry's appeals are winding down. The state of California has not held an execution in more than twenty years, but in the face of public clamor and politicians promising blood for blood, the moment is approaching—none too soon for some, far too quickly for others.

Before we witness Stanley's death, it's only fair that we examine his life, what's left of it. In late May of 1990 Executive Editor Allan MacDonell traveled to the bleak outcropping that is San Quentin prison. In the presence of three prison officials, Stanley was allowed off of Death Row for two hours of questioning. Stanley was tight-mouthed during much of the interview, often replying with terse, short sentences. Tall, pale and graying, with clear blue eyes that dart and fasten, the prisoner is lead in with chains and shackles. He has a fresh cut on his neck above the collar of his blue-denim shirt. There is no shaking of hands. The interview subject greets his visitors with a nod and a smile that could be mistaken for a grimace. Say hello to Jerry F. Stanley, then get ready to say goodbye.

HUSTLER: What happened to your neck? Was that shaving?

JERRY F. STANLEY: Yeah. I asked if I could shave and shower, and they said no shower. They let me shave real quick.

HUSTLER: What's your typical day like? STANLEY: Right now, it's kind of rough. I'm in what they call the AC, the adjustment center, the hole. I was placed there 22 months ago, for a rules violation allegedly. I was told I'd be there for about three months, and I'm still there.

HUSTLER: What's the difference between the AC and being on the Row itself?

STANLEY: This is called grade B. Grade A, you have contact visits and a telephone every day. You're allowed to receive packages from your family at least four times a year. You can own things. I'm not allowed to own an electric razor in the AC.

HUSTLER: What was the rules violation? STANLEY: I was told I was a threat to an inmate, that I was going to assault him. Recently I was charged with threatening an officer in a letter to a prison law-office attorney, that I was going to retaliate against the officer if he kept pushing me. I was upset when I wrote it. I was charged with verbally threatening an officer. It was totally false.

HUSTLER: What can they do to punish a guy who's already on Death Row?

STANLEY: A lot of things. Physical and mental abuse. Theft of property. Ransacking and destroying property. False charges to make me look bad when I go through a federal trial next month in San Francisco on a civil-rights violation. Yesterday, the FBI wanted to interview me regarding these violations here in San Quentin. The officer yelled down the tier, deliberately, "Stanley, FBI here to see you." This completely jeopardizes my life, and he was laughing about it. Certain staff members are trying to increase the harassment to show other inmates how bad it can be.

HUSTLER: How long have you been in prison this time?

STANLEY: August of '81 was the arrest date, and I've been here since April or May of '84; so it's been six years.

HUSTLER: Had you been in prison before August of '81?

STANLEY: Three years in a minimumsecurity center.

HUSTLER: Why are you on Death Row? STANLEY: My wife's death.

HUSTLER: And what were you in camp for?

STANLEY: My wife's death. HUSTLER: Same wife?

STANLEY: No. That would be impossible. HUSTLER: And what happened?

STANLEY: I can't really discuss what I'm here [on Death Row] for, except that it's a 100% circumstantial case, and it's pending before the supreme court.

"Morris! Thank God you're here! These Negroes followed me home and forced me to tie them up!"

DEATH ROW

The prior case happened when I caught my wife with somebody across the Bay, in Concord. She wound up dead, and I wound up in prison.

The prior case happened when I caught my wife with somebody across the Bay here, in Concord. She wound up dead, and I wound up in prison. I was guilty then, and I admitted my guilt and went through firefighting camp in San Luis Obispo.

HUSTLER: You caught your wife in the act with somebody?

STANLEY: I did, yeah. Yeah, I believe so. HUSTLER: Did you kill her right there? STANLEY: I did, yeah.

HUSTLER: Did you kill the guy too?

STANLEY: No. No. He walked away. I was stunned at what I had done, at what happened. No, he wasn't harmed at all.

HUSTLER: How did you kill her?

STANLEY: Pistol.

HUSTLER: Do you always carry a pistol? STANLEY: Yeah, I always have a Chevy 4-wheel drive pickup every year, and I always have a handgun and a rifle, a shotgun sometimes—hunting stuff, you know.

HUSTLER: Did you have gun permits? STANLEY: You bet, oh, yeah. I worked as a hunting guide.

HUSTLER: Did you suspect something? STANLEY: I was told that something was going on, but I didn't want to believe it. HUSTLER: Did you know the guy who was with your wife?

STANLEY: Yeah, I did. HUSTLER: Was he a friend?

STANLEY: He was; he was.

HUSTLER: Did he testify against you?

STANLEY: He did, yes.

HUSTLER: Why didn't you shoot him? STANLEY: I don't know. It happened in the car. He opened the driver's side. I heard that he opened the door and ran, but I don't know. Like I said, I was stunned afterward.

HUSTLER: Were they clothed?

STANLEY: Partially.

HUSTLER: Did you, like, go blind?

STANLEY: I didn't go blind. I mean, I did it. I did it; that's all I can say about it.

HUSTLER: Did you leave right away, or did you stick around?

STANLEY: No, I got in the car and went down to get a beer. Walked out to the car, and the police were standing there. I was searched and got in the back of the police car, and that was it. Took about ten minutes.

HUSTLER: Do you still have remorse about killing your first wife? STANLEY: You bet. Every day of my life. HUSTLER: If she were still alive, and the same situation happened....

STANLEY: No, I wouldn't. I really wouldn't. There are a thousand and one different ways to work things out now.

HUSTLER: How many of the guys on Death Row do you believe are innocent?

STANLEY: Two, maybe three that I know of.

HUSTLER: How many of them claim to be innocent?

STANLEY: Quite a few, but the facts are overwhelming. I mean, someone charged with three or four, even five homicides, it's pretty overwhelming. A lot more guys admit their guilt and maybe claim they didn't get a fair trial or should be doing life or something like that.

HUSTLER: What sort of discrimination do you see on who gets sent to Death Row?

STANLEY: There are a lot of blacks on Death Row.

HUSTLER: If you'd had a better lawyer defending the second murder charge, would you have ended up on Death Row?

STANLEY: I had the best attorneys you can have. My counsel was an ex-district attorney. We had two trials on the charges. The first trial was an 11-to-1, not-guilty hung jury. We didn't think they would pursue it, but they did, and here I am.

HUSTLER: Do you really think they are going to kill you?

STANLEY: Yes, I do, with the current court. It's best, because this is no life. I can't even begin to live if I can't be free. I don't want to live like this.

HUSTLER: How much time do you spend thinking about the death that's coming to you?

STANLEY: Not much. I try to work on my case quite a few hours a day. I just stay busy trying to avoid any hassle or harassment. I've got my television. I like sports, the Raiders, and all outdoor programs. I watch all news programs. I got addicted to a series, Twin Peaks; just about everybody did.

HUSTLER: Are the Raiders the home team of Death Row?

STANLEY: No, I don't think so. I think most of these guys are 49ers fans.

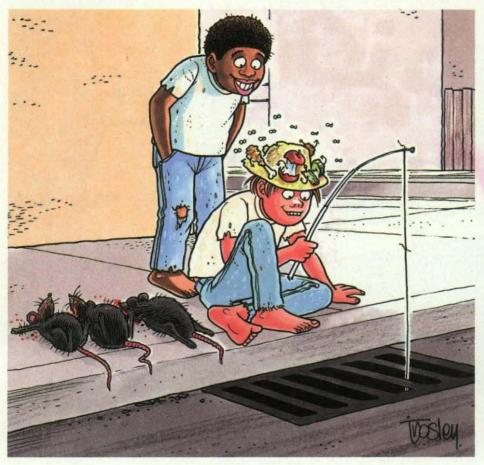

HUSTLER: Who do you like in the NBA finals?

STANLEY: I'd like to see Chicago because I like Michael Jordan. In fact, I just obtained an 8" X 10" photo of Michael Jordan to send to my son.

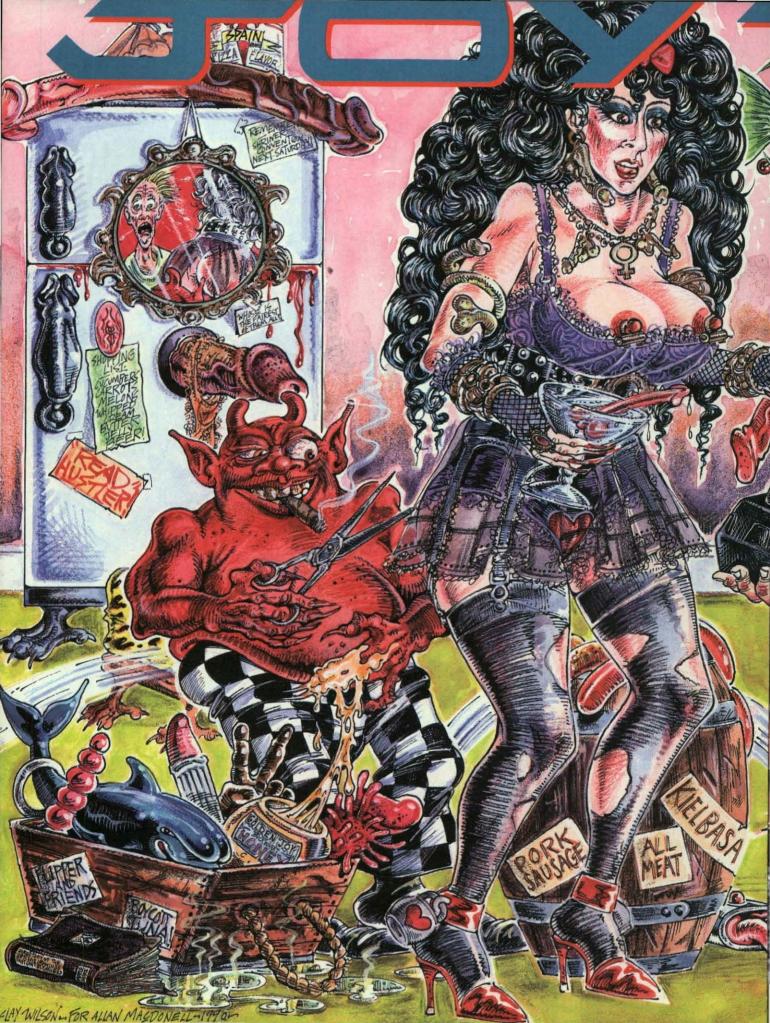

HUSTLER: How many kids do you have? STANLEY: I have three, all from my first marriage. I have a stepson from the second marriage.

HUSTLER: Are you in touch with them? STANLEY: Yes, and they're behind me. My oldest son is a college student. My daugh-

Joy Toys

As a callgirl, just pennies worth of Emotion Lotion, a small butt plug and the right vibrator earned me a lot of extra cash.

Over the years I've tried virtually every sex toy in existence. When I "acted" in porn movies, a big box of sex toys was usually on the set. As a callgirl, just pennies worth of Emotion Lotion, a small butt plug and the right vibrator earned me a lot of extra cash. When I worked as a stripper and had to have a gimmick, sex toys often delighted jaded audiences. But mostly I learned a lot about sex toys because I enjoy using them when I have sex, either alone or with a lover.

Perhaps you've bought sex toys in the past. In fact, your nightstand is full of them right now, but they're boring or broken. A lot of toys stimulate exciting fantasies in a catalog or packaged up in a shop, but in actual practice, they're not exciting at all, or the quality is shoddy. But some worthwhile products are very stimulating. So let me save you money and heartbreak with this list of what I consider to be the best toys available.

THE MOST DESIRABLE DILDOS

Dildos have been popular since the beginning of humankind, and they will no doubt be popular until the end. Why? Because they feel good, that's why.

A lot of dildos on the market don't look good, taste good or feel good. But dildo technology has come a long way, baby, with new materials and more sexual awareness. My favorites:

Over and Under—This is two dildos in one, attached at the balls. The larger one is meant for the pussy, the smaller for the rear end. It works well backward too. Once I was fucked with this double-dong while giving a blowjob, and it had that gangbang effect (Come Again Boutique).

The Manhandler—Very popular with the lesbians, this one looks like a sword, as it has a handle on it. It's a little bit long (16 inches); so it bends and isn't that easy to control. But the handle does help get a good grip on the situation (Doc Johnson).

The Handi—If you like to be fingerfucked, this one is for you. Shaped like two fingers, complete with knuckles and short fingernails, it's made of soft, lavender silicone and is crafted by women. The fingers come in small or medium (In Harmony). (In Harmony products are crueltyfree and use no animal products.)

The Realistics—According to the representative at Doc Johnson's (the largest manufacturer of sex toys in the world), this is the number-one selling toy on the market. It's an extremely realistic cock and balls, complete with wrinkles, pores and bluish, bulging veins. I tried the replica of porn star Jeff Stryker's huge member, and could only fit about half inside me. The fun part is that at the base of this dildo there is a suction cup. Stick it up on the refrigerator or on the bathroom tiles in the shower. Then, just bend over and fuck your refrigerator or your wall. Imagine that (Doc Johnson).

DILDOS FOR THE NEW AGE

New-age consciousness has trickled into many cracks and crevices beyond the mainstream, including pussies and anuses. Some very lovely dildos for the metaphysical man and woman:

Flipper—"A new friend," is shaped like a happy, jumping dolphin. Fleshlike lavender silicone, it's strong and tearresistant (In Harmony).

Crystal—Looking like a rock formation, it could easily be displayed on your dresser, and no one would ever know it's actually your favorite dildo. It's made from marbleized shades of lavender silicone and is a compact four inches long (In Harmony).

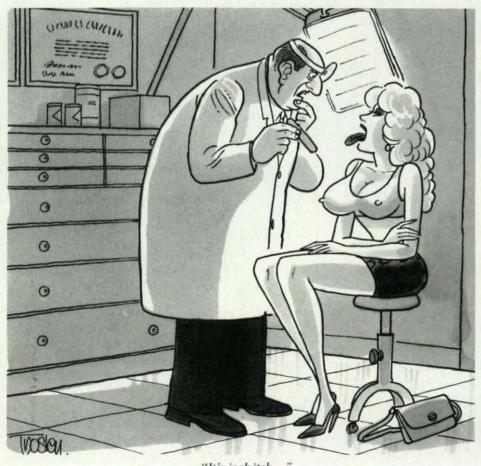

Genuine Crystal Dildos—Real crystals, mined from the earth, are nature at her best. Each hand-carved phallus has different powers. The amethyst cocks help bring out the spiritual side of sex; rose-quartz cocks help open the heart and bring out emotions; smoky-quartz cocks purify negativity; clear-quartz cocks are used for strength, power and harmony. My own four-inch, smoky-quartz dick is beautiful, rock hard, and it feels nice and cool (Joseph Kramer's Body Electric School of Massage, 6527A Telegraph Avenue, Oakland, CA 94609).

PC PLAYMATES

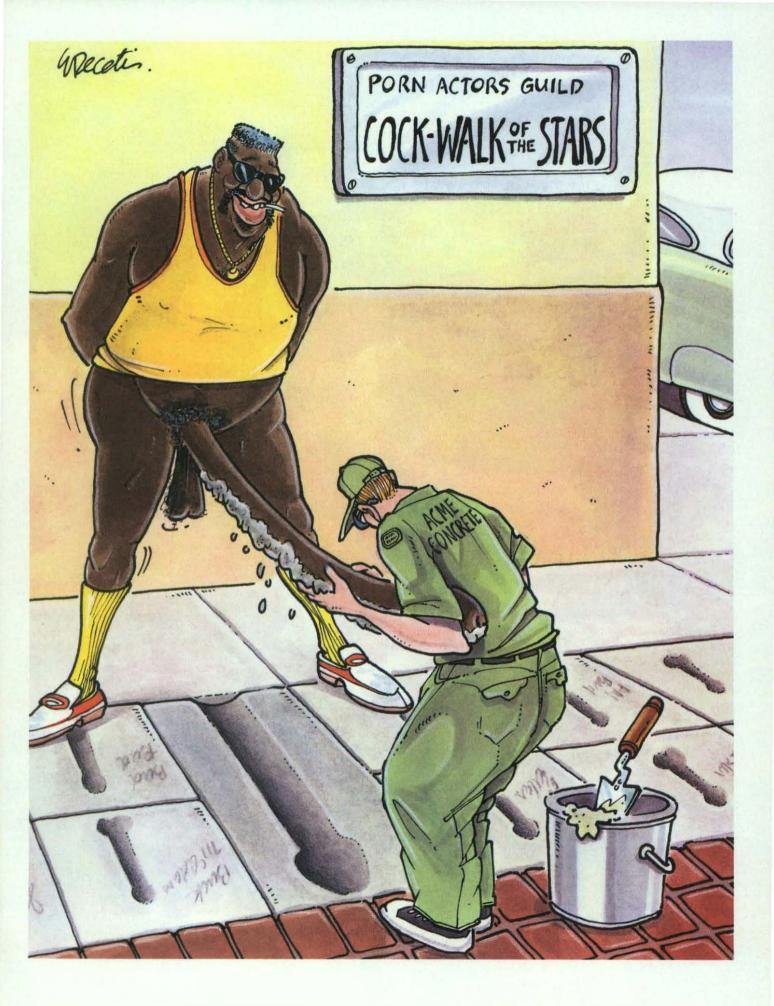

After years of hands-on research, I've discovered how important the pubococcygeus muscles (sometimes called the PCs or the love muscles) are for great sex. These muscles are used while taking a piss to stop the flow of urine. Both men and women have them. They can give pleasure to your partner when squeezed, they can be used to extend the length and improve the quality of orgasm, and they keep the sex drive up. Just like any kind of bodybuilding, firming up the PCs takes work and discipline. Two items help make this workout fun:

The Barbell for the Vagina—This is a seven-inch, solid-brass barbell, which when used for eight minutes a day for 14 weeks can increase PC-muscle strength by 56.9%. It also makes a fantastic dildo. Used vaginally, it can increase sexual pleasure and improve chronic vaginitis, incontinence, painful menstruation and vaginal lubrication. Anally, it can eliminate hemorrhoids (Institute for Sexual Awareness, P.O.

A Polish man rushed in to see his doctor. "Help me!" cried the unfortunate man. "My dick has fallen off!"

"Where is it?" asked the doctor.

"In this paper bag in my pocket," answered the man, fishing the article out of his pocket and dumping it onto the doctor's desk.

The doctor looked at it closely and said, "But this is a marshmallow!"

"Don't be ridiculous," the man replied, "I ate that on the bus!"

uestion: What is "XX"?

Answer: A black man cosigning for a Polack.

A priest, a minister and a rabbi were all enjoying a beer together when a fly landed right in the priest's glass. The priest dipped his finger in the glass and pulled the fly out. He then shook the fly off of his finger, saying, "Be gone into the air, little creature of God."

A few minutes later, the fly returned, this time landing in the minister's glass. The minister did the same as the priest, saying to the fly, "Be free and go on your way, little bug."

The fly was mighty persistent, though, and soon he was back at the table and nose-diving into the rabbi's beer. The rabbi jerked the fly out of the glass and tossed it violently into the air, screaming, "Spit it out!"

Two rednecks couldn't figure out how to measure a flagpole that they'd been hired to paint by the foot; so they asked a black man who was standing around if he would help them.

The black man pulled a pin from the bottom of the pole, laid the pole on the ground, pulled out his ruler and measured it. When he finished, he put his tape measure away, put the flagpole back in the stand and walked off.

When he was far enough away, the one redneck turned to the other and said, "Isn't that just like a nigger—you ask for the height, and he gives you the width."

A man from the city decided to buy himself a pig; so he took a drive in the country until he came to a sign reading: PIGS FOR SALE. Turning into the drive, he parked next to an old farmer standing by a pen full of pigs and explained his mission. Agreeing to a price of a dollar per pound, he picked out his pig, whereupon the old man picked up the pig by the tail with his teeth. "Ayuh, that there pig weighs 69 pounds."

Noting his customer's astonishment, the farmer explained that the ability to weigh pigs in this manner was a family trait passed down through the generations. Skeptical, and not wanting to be taken for a city slicker, the man insisted on a second opinion. So the old farmer called his son over from the barn, and the boy, in the same fashion, pronounced the pig's weight to be 69 pounds.

Convinced, the man pulled out his wallet, but the farmer asked him to go up to the farmhouse and pay his wife, who would give him a receipt. The man was gone for a long time, and when he finally returned, it was without a receipt. "What's the problem, son?" asked the old man.

"I went up there just like you said," recounted the city man, "but your wife was too busy to give me a receipt."

"Too busy doing what?" wondered the farmer, aloud. "Well, sir, I'm not exactly sure," stammered the man, "but I think she's weighing the milkman."

uestion: Have you heard about the new Kuwaiti movie?

Answer: Iraqnophobia.

Strolling down a residential street, a psychic casually mentioned to his buddy, "In the house over there lives a woman who's on the rag today."

"You can't possibly know that," the friend replied incredulously.

"Wanna bet? Just ring the door bell and ask. Hundred dollars to you if I'm wrong. Two hundred to me if I'm right," responded the psychic.

The doubting friend agreed and rang the bell. No response. He rang again—nothing. Only after several attempts was the door answered by a man dressed only in boxer shorts.

"Excuse me, sir," the friend politely inquired, "does your wife happen to have her period today?"

The man in the door was visibly embarrassed. He wiped his mouth and answered, "Well, yeah...does it show?"

Plug one end into your computer and the other into your vagina or anus; can you keep your spaceships from getting hit by stars and asteroids?

Box 828, Upper Montclair, NJ 07043).

The Pelvic Muscle Video Game — From the man who made G spot a household word, here's a video game that runs under pelvic-muscle control. Plug one end into your home computer and the other end into your vagina or anus; can you keep your spaceships from getting hit by stars and asteroids? (Write for free brochure with SASE to Dr. John Perry, P.O.B. 256, Bryn Mawr, PA 19010.)

THE BULL ON BLOW-UP BABES

Yes, people really do make love to plastic dolls, and come inside them too. I don't recommend the dolls for making love, but they are wonderful swimming-pool toys, exciting home-decorating accents, and fun to pass around at a football game. Choose from a wide variety of new styles: Lai Mi (get it?) is an Oriental girl, Dallas is made to sit on top for a wild ride, Greek Girl is bent over in doggy position with her butt in the air, and Slave Girl is molded to be submissive with her arms above her head, ready to be tied. My favorites are the "Love Ewe—The Inflatable Party Sheep" and the Latex Lady, whose skin is most realistic, has long fingernails and a pussy, asshole and mouth that actually lubricate. Latex Lady has a lifetime warranty, and she can handle a man over 300 pounds (Come Again Boutique).

SEX TOYS THAT AREN'T NEC-ESSARILY SEX TOYS

Some of the best sex toys aren't found in the local neighborhood sex-toy shop.

The Speculum—For those who get off on exposing all of themselves, try playing with a standard doctor's speculum, purchased at any medical-supply house. Safe and simple to use, just insert it into the vagina, clamp it down and screw it open. Then a lover can take a flashlight and have a peek. Some guys prefer to keep the inside of my pussy a mystery, but those who dare to look are delighted and amazed.

The Riot Stick —Go into a police-supply store to buy a sex toy. The riot stick comes in rubbery plastic or fiberglass. Both are black, 12 inches long and one inch in diameter. Great for anal penetration, because they aren't too thick around, they last a lifetime.

The Polaroid Camera—Lots of you probably own this wonderful sex toy and don't even realize all the fun you're missing by only using it for birthday parties. Go buy 50 bucks' worth of Polaroid film and make a little porn. The photos are just an excuse to enjoy being voyeuristic or exhibitionistic, to dress up in sexy costumes, to do things you normally would never do.

The Scratchy Mitt—This stimulating item can be purchased at most drugstores. A straw-bristled mitt made for the shower, it works great in bed. Scrub the entire body vigorously, and it will create pathways for sexual energy to travel from the genitals to every part of the body. Some men love the Scratchy Mitt treatment on their testicles.

Mirrors—Take it from a pro, it's no coincidence that almost every whorehouse has mirrors on its walls. People get very turned-on watching themselves having sex. Mostly people focus on their genitals, but I find it very erotic and empowering to stare into my own eyes while I'm masturbating.

MALE MASTURBATOR MADNESS

I don't have a penis; so I really can't attest to the best device for men to fuck and be sucked with. Most plastic vaginas look very unappealing. Guys who've tried them say that no fake pussy can compare to their own hands. But I did find two of these contraptions rather intriguing:

The Blow Fish—It's a big, spongy, white fish with lime-green spots and a pair of big, pink lips, that rolls its eyes around when it gives a blowjob. The plastic lining pulls inside out so that it can be cleaned of any "pollution." It's amusing to see a man get his prick sucked by a fish (Come Again Boutique).

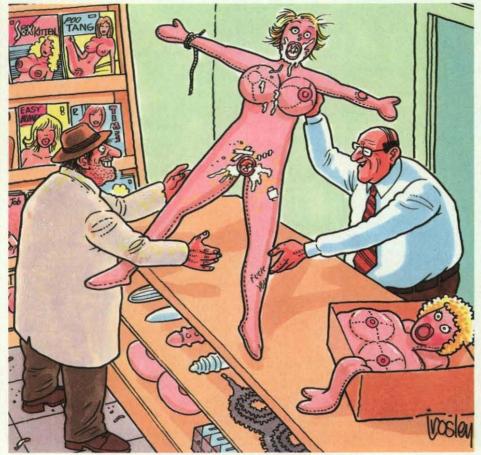

The Power Satisfier—This device features an insulation of silencing foam for quiet usage. "The ticklers of joy" womb has ridges in the "love grip" for realistic sensations. The design features the backside of a mermaid (Come Again Boutique).

TOYS TO WEAR

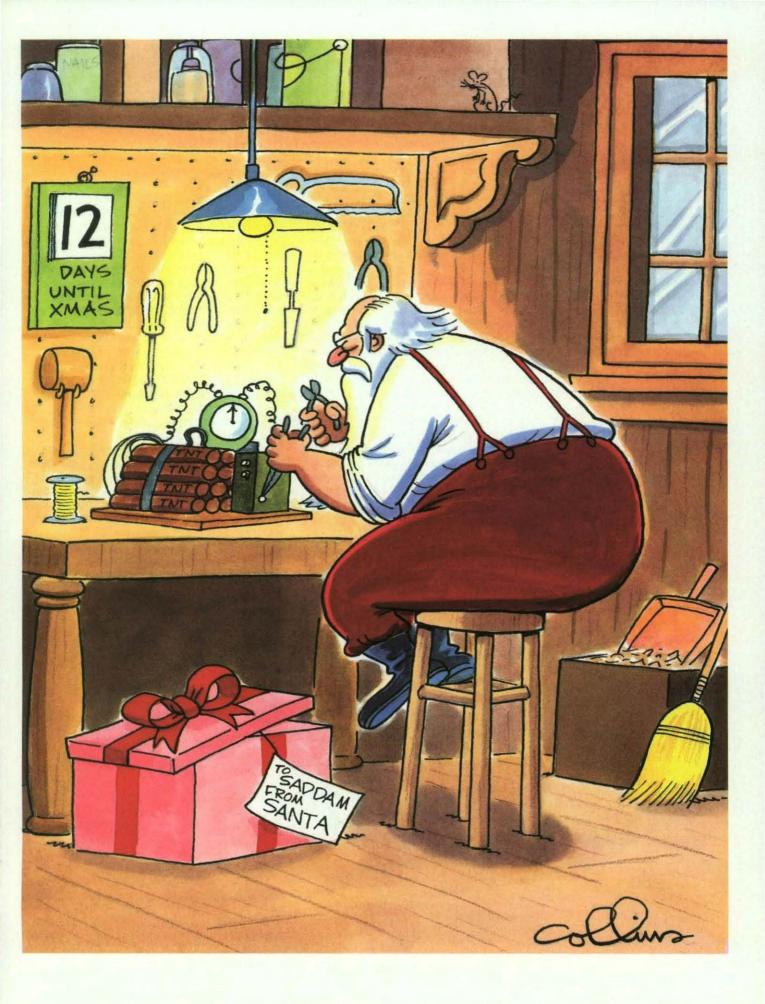

Nipple Cuffs — Nipple clamps are out. Nipple cuffs, a pair of U-shaped wires with a sliding bar at the bottom that can be slid tight around the nipple, are in. A ring attachment gives that sexy pierced-nipple look (Constance Enterprises, P.O. Box 43277, Upper Montclair, NJ 07043).

The Cock Cage—I've never actually used this item, but I simply love the idea of a chastity belt for men. The Cock Cage is made with leather and metal snaps, with a wire basket that fits over the head of the penis. A man can wear it under his clothing while he's doing the grocery shopping, and his woman can have the key while she's away at work (Versatile Fashions).

Cock Rings—Cock rings really do work. Not only do they look sexy, but they keep a man's erection harder and for a longer time. Find them in any sex-toy shop, or they have great metal and rubber ones at the neighborhood hardware store.

"While we're fixing yours, you can use this loaner "

Joy Toys

Soft Stuff—This vibrating dildo can squirt. Fill it with milk, diet soda, vanilla yogurt or whatever you like best, and make it come.

FOOD-FUCKING

Some wonderful sex toys are at home in your refrigerator. Carrots, cucumbers (carve them to size) and melon slices make great dildos, as well as nutritious foods. For non-vegetarians I recommend the double-ended kielbasa sausage. It feels yummy.

Many products in sex-toy shops simulate food: Body Gello, Joy Jelly, Body Butter, Body Whippe Cream. But why not use the actual food? It tastes a lot better, and it's about one-tenth the price.

ANAL ACCOUTREMENTS

Disposable Enemas—A great invention, available at most drugstores for a couple of dollars. Keep half a dozen under your bed, and use them whenever you want a refreshing pick-me-up. Great before anal sex.

The Inflator—This sex toy creates an unusual sensation. It's a hose with a balloon at one end and a pump at the other. Insert the balloon into the ass, pump air into it, then close the valve. The air stays inside. It's like an enema without water, or like being fucked from the inside out (The Whole Platinum Catalog, 4501 Van Nuys Boulevard, Suite 215, Sherman Oaks, CA 91403).

The Tripple Ripple Vibro Butt Plugg— Many of us hold a lot of tension in our sphincters. This vibrating butt plug is very good for relaxing that area, and thus relaxing the whole body. It looks like the top of a Mr. Softie ice-cream cone. Start small and work up to a bigger width (Doc Johnson).

LUST IN LATEX

We are definitely in the "rubber age," folks; so learn to love it. These latex products are easy to love:

Safe Sex Panties—Designed to replace clumsy dental dams used for safe-sex cunnilingus and anilingus, these panties look sexy on and make a good sex toy too. The person getting head puts them on, then the person giving head can suck up the crotch of the panties and let it go pop against the receiver's pussy. This suck-pop, suck-pop action repeated over and over creates a wild new sensation (Eve's Garden).

Rubber Smother Briefs—If you love to go under the covers to eat pussy, then rush out and buy a pair of Smother Briefs, crotchless panties with a hood attached to go over the eater's head so he/she can smother in her warm, wet, juicy, aromatic pussy without distractions (Versatile Fashions).

VIBRATOR HEAVEN

How anyone can live without a vibrator, I just don't know. There are many arguments against vibrators ("they're addictive," "my lover gets jealous," or "I end up being less sensitive"), but the pros definitely outweigh any cons.

The Rabbit Pearl, the Great King and the Beaver—It is said that long ago in ancient Japan, sex toys were not supposed to look like human genitals; so they made them look like other things, mostly animals. A new line of flexible, soft-rubber, Japanese vibrators follows in that tradition. Each has a dildo that moves in corkscrew fashion, plus an animal attached for clitoral stimulation. Get your clit vibrated with rabbit ears, a kangaroo nose or a beaver tongue. The Rabbit Pearl features a center section with beads inside it that roll around. If you like anal stimulation, you can turn the whole thing around. These are good-quality, multiple-speed vibrators (Eve's Garden).

Soft Stuff—Funny but not really very practical, this vibrating dildo can squirt. Fill it with milk, diet soda, vanilla yogurt or whatever you like best, and make it come (Come Again).

The Hot Shot—This is really something new—a vibrator that heats up. Shaped like a hammer, it has one round, pointy, metal end and one flat, silver-dollar-size end. Plug it in, and it heats up in just one minute to approximately the same temperature as a nice, warm mouth.

The Hitachi Magic Wand—This popular device plugs into the wall and has high and low speeds. It measures 12.5 inches, with a tennis-ball-size head. I use it all over my partner's body. Sometimes I hold it against my cheek when I give a blowjob.

Prelude 3—This vibrator is good for women who find the Hitachi Magic Wand too powerful. It's gentler, but still has good, strong action. There are several attachments for the head of it, but who wants a scalp massager on her clit anyway?

It would be easy to hang yourself. Get a torn bed sheet. We had a guy do it here with the cord from his TV. There are a lot of different ways.

ter is married now; I have two grandchildren, and my youngest son is taking it hard. He's a young teenager, and he's kind of on the edge of making a little trouble.

HUSTLER: He knows that you killed his mother.

STANLEY: Yes, he does.

HUSTLER: Has he resolved that?

STANLEY: He had to go through a lot of counseling, but he understands that it happened, and there's nothing I can say to change it. I did it.

HUSTLER: Have you explained to him why and how it happened?

STANLEY: Yes, many times.

HUSTLER: Did you tell him that you were sorry?

STANLEY: Of course, you bet. HUSTLER: Did that help him?

STANLEY: I hope it did. He's at the age where he's thinking about cars, and things like this, running around and wanting to stay out. So I'll keep my fingers crossed.

HUSTLER: What gives you the most remorse?

STANLEY: My wife's death. I'm talking about my first wife, the one I admitted my guilt about. I feel terrible about that. I lost control and did that, way back in early 1975. I dream about it; I think about it every day.

HUSTLER: What do you think it's done to your kids?

STANLEY: They were deprived of their mother.

HUSTLER: Has anyone in your family suffered more than you have over what you've done?

STANLEY: Sure, you bet, oh, yeah. My mom and my dad, my sister, my brothers, and my kids especially.

HUSTLER: If you could bring her back for them, but still be condemned to die, would you do that?

STANLEY: Absolutely. In a minute.

HUSTLER: Have her parents forgiven you? STANLEY: I'd like to think so, but I'm not sure. They're very good people.

HUSTLER: Does God exist on Death Row? STANLEY: I believe in God. If He exists, He exists everywhere.

HUSTLER: Do a lot of people get religion on Death Row?

STANLEY: No, there's not really a lot of religion. There is some, but no, not a lot.

HUSTLER: Do people harden themselves against any kind of religion?

STANLEY: Yes. HUSTLER: Why? STANLEY: I don't know.

HUSTLER: Do you believe in heaven and hell?

STANLEY: Sure. I believe I'm in hell right now.

HUSTLER: Where do you suppose you'll go from here?

STANLEY: I don't know, but it's got to be better. It's got to be.

HUSTLER: What would you like to find there?

STANLEY: Peace. Period.

HUSTLER: Are you doing anything to prepare spiritually for your death?

STANLEY: I do read the Bible quite a bit, and I read a lot of books. I don't know if that's really preparing myself or not. I've even read Shirley MacLaine's three books, Out on a Limb, Dancing in the Light and It's All in the Plane. I've corresponded personally with her, just out of curiosity, to see if there's anything really to it.

HUSTLER: Do you believe in the concept of reincarnation?

STANLEY: I'm not sure. Like I said, she sent me three autographed books. I've read it, and I tend to believe, but there's a part of me....

HUSTLER: When does hope die on Death Row?

STANLEY: I don't know how to answer that. There are times I feel real, real bitter. Yesterday was one of those times. I have some hard feelings for some staff members of the AC and that run this prison. I've had some hard feelings for people on the outside that I felt were maybe moving too slow investigating or breaking their word.

HUSTLER: Is suicide an issue on Death Row?

STANLEY: If they start executing, I think it will be. I've had conversations with people that have said that's the way they would rather go. It would be easy to hang yourself. Get a torn bed sheet. We had a guy do it here with the cord from his TV. There are a lot of different ways.

HUSTLER: Let's say you lose your appeal, what makes life worth living until your execution date?

STANLEY: I don't know. After the supreme-court decision, it is my right not to appeal.

HUSTLER: It sounds like you're trying to rush through your appeal so you can get on with your execution.

STANLEY: I believe that's how it's going to be, yes.

HUSTLER: Is your refusal to appeal further a form of suicide?

STANLEY: Sure. Yeah, sure. That's what my attorneys say, anyway. They

"Thank God the sinks are still free."

"Can't we ever have a tree with ornaments and tinsel...?"

DEATH ROW

I did meet Mother Teresa here. She just blessed me and gave me a small cross that I gave to my daughter. I'm very glad I got to meet her.

try really hard to convince me of that. HUSTLER: Do you think there's a better form of punishment than death?

STANLEY: I don't know. I know what I want. I want either out or death, period. I won't change my mind. I get a lot of laughs among the inmates and the officers. They think I'll change my mind when the time comes, but it won't happen, believe me.

HUSTLER: And when you go, are you going to walk quietly to the room, or are you going to fight and kick?

STANLEY: Well, sure, you have to walk. I mean, what are you going to do, have them drag you? It'd just make it even worse. You're going to go one way or the other.

HUSTLER: The method of execution in California is gas, isn't it?

STANLEY: Correct.

HUSTLER: Now there's electrocution, firing squad, hanging, lethal injection. Which one do you think is best?

STANLEY: Probably lethal injection. Just speculation, really. Seems easier.

HUSTLER: Let's say someone's daughter is killed. Do you think her parents should have the right to pull the switch on her murderer?

STANLEY: I would hate to see that. The parents might end up feeling worse. I know a lot of them would like to do that.

HUSTLER: What about vigilante justice? Someone kills my daughter, and I go after the guy and kill him?

STANLEY: No, I think you'd make a mistake too.

HUSTLER: You don't think people should be killing each other?

STANLEY: Not really.

HUSTLER: What's the point of the death penalty?

STANLEY: To be honest with you, I don't really care anymore.

HUSTLER: Do you believe in capital punishment for certain crimes?

STANLEY: I do, especially crimes against children, yeah, you bet. There's a lot of different crimes against children committed by guys here. All the kids wound up dead.

HUSTLER: Is there sex on Death Row? STANLEY: I've never seen or heard of anything like that happening. You're referring to homosexual activities? I don't think that could be happening, period.

HUSTLER: Do you spend a lot of time thinking about sex?

STANLEY: No. No.

HUSTLER: When was the last time you had sex?

STANLEY: Around August of '81.

HUSTLER: Was that your wife?

STANLEY: It was with an ex-girlfriend. HUSTLER: Do you miss sex much?

STANLEY: Of course. It's like you miss good food, fresh air, mountains or kids.

HUSTLER: Would you say it's one of the major deprivations?

STANLEY: Major? Not necessarily. No. HUSTLER: What do you miss most about the outside world?

STANLEY: Everything. My kids, the mountains, the food, everything. I had a dream last night. I walked into a Round Table Pizza parlor in Northern California. I took my kids there.

I went out January 25 of this year for most of the day to a court appearance. I saw two or three pizza parlors, a couple of good-looking women, a couple of 4-wheel drives similar to mine, people busy doing things. I did meet Mother Teresa here, by the way. She walked up on the Row and met several of us. There were bars between us, but no mesh screen. I really couldn't understand her very well. She just blessed me and gave me a small cross that I gave to my daughter. I did obtain a very good photo of her that I keep in my cell. In fact, it's one of the only really good photos of her here. I know she does a lot of good work. I'm very glad I got to meet her.

HUSTLER: If you could change anything in your life prior to this past conviction, what would you change?

STANLEY: I would have made a right instead of a left turn in a brand-new Camaro I was driving.

HUSTLER: You still would have gotten married the second time?

STANLEY: Now that you mention it, I definitely wouldn't have done that.

HUSTLER: Is there anyone you'd like to trade places with you right now?

STANLEY: I can think of a few lawenforcement personnel.

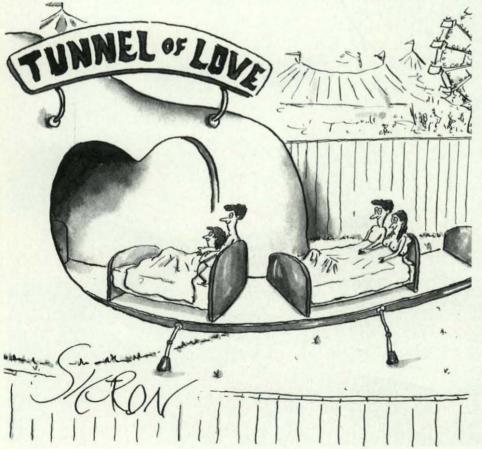

HUSTLER: Is there anything we haven't asked that you thought we'd ask you?

STANLEY: You probably want to know am I innocent or am I guilty of my charge, and I won't answer that.

HUSTLER: What do you like best about your life now?

STANLEY: Like best? That all this is coming to an end soon, one way or another.

HUSTLER: Is there a moral to your story? STANLEY: Sure. Don't lose your temper. This sure in the hell isn't worth it.

Today, people are interested in improving the quality of their lives...and exploring their own sensuality with options from the Xandria Collection. Sexual devices can provide a new and entirely positive source of pleasure.

The most important aspect of satisfaction is trust. Trust us...thoughtful consideration goes into each product in the catalogue. Quality, value, and sensual appeal are all important elements, as are you, the customer.

What is the Xandria Collection?

It is a very, very special collection of sensual devices. It includes the finest and most effective products available from around the world. Products that can open new doors to pleasure (perhaps many you never knew existed!).

Our products range from the simple to the delightfully complex. They are designed for both the timid and the bold. For anyone who's ever wished there could be something more to their sensual pleasure.

The Xandria Collection has a unique three way guarantee.

First, we guarantee your privacy.

Everything we ship is plainly packaged and securely wrapped, with no clue to its contents from the outside. All transactions are strictly confidential, and we never sell, give or trade any customer's name.

Second, we guarantee your satisfaction.

If a product seems unsatisfactory...simply return it for replacement or refund.

Third, we guarantee that the product you choose will keep giving you pleasure. . . .

Should it malfunction, simply return it to us for a replacement.

The Xandria Gold Collection...a tribute to closeness and communication. Celebrate the possibilities for pleasure we each have within us. If you're prepared to intensify your own pleasure, then send for the Xandria Collection Gold Edition Catalogue. It is priced at just four dollars which is applied in full to your first order.

Write today. You have absolutely nothing to lose. And an entirely new world of enjoyment to gain.

YOU CAN HAVE A LONGER, THICKER, HARDER PENIS NOW!

You can have erect measurements up to 12 inches! Enlarge your penis to its maximum potential!

Have you ever been embarrassed by the size of your penis? Have you tried to convince yourself it's not how big it is but how you use it? As long as your sex partner needs to be completely filled, you owe it to yourself to do something about a larger penis now!

Our penis developer will increase penis length, thickness, and make your erection harder and stiffer.

Did you know a woman's vagina will stretch and enlarge to accommodate a large penis?

accommodate a large penis?
Imagine her excitement as you penetrate deeper than you ever have before.

How does our penis developer increase your penis length and diameter?

The answer is called hypermia, a medical term to describe blood filling into caverns of your penis. The caverns expand causing your penis to grow in size and diameter. The superior pump action and sealed vacuum of our penis developer urges your penis to grow to mammoth proportions. Our penis developer is not just a vibrator like some electric units you may see advertised. Remember, it is the precise slow super pumping action of our space age designed penis pump that builds your penis larger than you ever dreamed possible.

Act now if you are interested in penis enlargement. TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS SPECIAL OFFER NOW!

Reg. $49.95- NOW ONLY $24.95

NOTICE: Our hand held penis pump as shown is not an electric massager or vibrator unit which may be dangerous, especially with liquids and gels, and cause electric shock and possible injury.

THE FAMOUS SCOTT TAYLOR PENIS ENLARGEMENT VIDEO TAPE

Scott has an enormous penis- he uses the hand held penis developer (not an electric massage unit) in a step by step demonstration to show you what you need to know and how to go about increasing your penis length and diameter.

VIDEO MAN'

guys who love to fuck and suck for you to watch. I meet girls on the street, in bars, in the park or at the beach and I ask them if they want to be in a sex video. You'll be surprised how many girls say yes. We go and shoot the videos everywhere. For example, housewives like to take me home with them. I fuck them and sometime the husband comes home and he gets so horny he joins in. Here are some examples of what I'm talking about.

rny housewife fucks her neighbor d he shoots his load all over her.

I love to fuck secretaries on their desk at work. If I get lucky I can get the whole office in a wild orgy

I have fantastic videos of stewardesses fucking a pilot right in the cockpit and then the crew comes in for a fantastic daisy chain.

How about family swingers at a birthday party in the backyard. Everyone joins in for a wild fucking

An oriental hooker and her John in a motel room.

A honeymoon couple who ask directions and end up in front of a camera fucking their brains out.

Girls on summer vacation looking for a hot cock. You'll see them strip their bikinis and do things that will make your blood boil

I found a couple of housewives who couldn't wait until their hubbies came home.

Sandy didn't think she was pretty enough to be on video and was also a little too chubby. She was shy at first but wait till you see what she does with a cock

You'll see these fantastic videos and much, much more. I've got it all, even things I can't describe in this ad. In addition to the videos I shoot, I'll also ship to you amateur videos that are sent to me from all over the country. So if you're looking for something very, very hot and the most exciting sex you'll ever see on video, send for my collection now.

MONTH HUSTLER

February HUSTLER on sale December 18, 1990

HIGH FIVE

HUSTLER takes the upper hand in February, squeezing into pink-knuckled overdrive as five sleek, young foxes compete for top honors. Join the chase as two tit-hungry, loft-dwelling beauties mix pussy oils for a painting in cream; a lone, tight-thighed brunette pulls a freshly glazed cherry from her fruit-salad snack; a big-boned Arizona dude stakes a claim in the body territory of a hip-swinging condo gal in HUSTLER's hottest guy/girl set ever; and a butt-baring video vamp plugs alternating currents into her own private, high-power energy source. February is a high-water mark for HUSTLER. It might take more than five fingers to manage this one. Stay tuned.

HARUM-SCARUM

To most people in America, members of the Hare Krishna movement are merely inconvenient, popping up at airports to rudely delay the urgent business of travel. The bald-headed incense bearers appear harmless, even friendly, but underneath the bright, benevolent surface of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness lurks a dark malevolence. Writer David Feller digs deep into the poisoned Hare rice bowl in Onward, Krishna Soldiers, where forced underage marriages, regular beatings and insidious mind-control are the casual business of Krishna cult-worship.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, CUM-SHOT

The more things change, the more things stay the same—for everything except the adult-film industry. Films have given way to videos, and the qualities of production and performance have taken a nosedive. HUSTLER speaks with three of the most successful directors in fuckdom about problems, solutions, the future and hilarious, tear-provoking reminiscences of the good old days of cheap drugs and talented women in Dix Handley's Damiano, Pachard and Bone: Heart-to-Hard, a stage-mark piece of hard-on history.

Beaver Hunt shows once again why pussies are America's favorite household pets; Hot Letters cooks another ear against a sizzling bedroom wall; and funny means strange as February's Bits & Pieces presents an eye-popping tour of a circus of sex freaks. Add to that some sensational shots of a gal who can tie her twat in a knot, and you've got a once-in-a-lifetime HUSTLER experience. February is the month to beat. HUSTLER gets you there in December.
